Mayor Ivan Allen
City Hall
Atlanta, Georgia

Mayor Allen:

Your statement on the nomination of Lester Maddox stands an everlasting monument to bad taste and is an affront to any person with a shred of decency and fair play. This man was elected by no one but the people of Georgia. Congratulations on doing more than perhaps anyone else to put Lester in the White House while maintaining your own position as winner and still champion of sewer level politics.

Yours very truly,
