Dear Ivan:

I simply cannot let the occasion grow stale without telling you how deeply proud I was of your brilliant performance before the Congressional Committee last week. As a former resident of Atlanta I have been congratulated by many people on the performance of Atlanta's Mayor. Really, yours was an act of real statesmanship and farsighted courage. I make this prediction: that there will be many major businesses attracted to Atlanta simply on the basis of the kind of Mayor who presides over its affairs.

My best personal regards to you and Louise.

With deep respect, I am

As ever,

Honorable Ivan Allen, Jr.
Mayor of the City of Atlanta
Atlanta, Georgia
