Snick Asks U.S. Court To Rule State's Laws Against Riots Illegal

Also Wants Allen Enjoined from Acting

By BILL SHIPP

Stokely Carmichael and Snick late Friday asked the federal court to declare unconstitutional Georgia's anti-riot and insurrection laws and the city's disorderly conduct ordinance.

On behalf of the city and his attorney, Snick said that a city's disorderly conduct ordinance is unconstitutional.

It said these statutes are "void and illegal on their face" in that they violate the "fundamental guarantees of free speech, press, assembly, and the right to petition the government for redress of grievances."

Stokely Moore Jr. of Atlanta is the legal counsel for Snick.

THOUGHTS AFTER A RIOT

So We Are a City of Law and Order?

By REESE CLEGHORN

ON TUESDAY, trouble came to Summerhill, near the Atlanta Stadium. Police shot a man in an arrest. The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee then seized the opportunity to whip tempers and frustrations to an explosive point. In the danger-filled hours that followed, hundreds of Negroes gathered and many attacked the police with stones, sticks and bottles.

Our riot, even so, was limited. The next day, property damage was seen to be light. As dangerous as the situation had been, only a small number of about 30,000 people who live in slum conditions close to the stadium had been involved.

No one who had bothered to look into Atlanta slum conditions was surprised much by the event or the location. Summerhill and the adjacent neighborhood of Mechanicsville long since had been pinpointed as among our worst slums.

The Community Council of the Atlanta Area told us last February how bad conditions are there. (And how much has been done since then?)

"MUCH of the housing . . . around the stadium is beyond repair, and the interviewers could find very few cases of even minimal maintenance," the report said. "As if in deliberate harmony with housing conditions, the streets commonly have broken pavement and holes; many are not paved at all. Sidewalks are broken and uneven and, with occasional exceptions, grass is nonexistent. At night, the absence of street lights makes the area very dark and dangerous. . . ."

"This deterioration has been accentuated through clearance by reducing the available low-income housing units. . . ."

Why does Summerhill exist, then?

MOST OF THE area has passed the point of rehabilitation. So Summerhill has been designated for a future urban renewal site. Certainly that will not solve all or even the main problems of those who live there, but done properly and accompanied by the right moves for the people now there, it would relieve many of the conditions.

Why hasn't urban renewal begun? Summerhill is one of eight areas proposed for urban renewal — eight in which Atlanta has not moved because it would not raise the money for the task.

Most of the cost of these renewal operations would be paid by the federal government; but Atlanta has not been willing to spend the money. The city government has not had it; and no one has insisted that it be done. When we have bond issues for urban renewal, the amounts proposed and approved are pittance in comparison with the need.

What happens in the meantime in such an area—Summerhill, Mechanicsville, Vine City or Plunkettown? What happens is that the city simply does not do its job. Why is the housing code not fully enforced? How can it be done, some officials ask in reply, when houses already are too dilapidated to be rehabilitated, or why should it be done when an area already has been proposed for urban renewal and perhaps already has been zoned for future industrial use? So it goes.

* * *

WE ARE HEARING a lot about the law. After a riot, everybody talks about law and order. Those believed to have provoked crowds into violent action are hustled off to jail, charged with inciting to riot, put under bonds totaling thousands of dollars each.

The prosecution of anyone really guilty of inciting already-wretched people into eating tear gas and otherwise increasing their wretchedness, knowing that this kind of demagoguery puts murder in the air, is absolutely right.

Yet it is interesting to compare what is happening on that front with what happens regularly to the white-collar landlords who fatten themselves on the misery of the slum dwellers.

How many major slum landlords of the kind who make a habit of defying the law and refusing to abide by the city housing code, adding to the bitterness that comes to violence—how many of them currently are in jail serving time or awaiting trial under $10,000 bond?

None.

* * *

EVEN WHEN THE city takes them to court, what does the Housing Court of Atlanta do? Here is what it can do: It can fine a violator $500 and send him to jail for six months, and if there are 20 cases against him it can repeat that penalty in each. And here is what, by contrast, the Housing Court commonly does do: It fines a mass violator $22 or $27, or $50 and a suspended sentence. It is a bargain.

Even this is only after tenacious evasion of the law; no one is brought into Housing Court except as a last resort.

In Atlanta, as in most big cities, we do not seem to be able to enforce laws against those who illegally profit from the misery of the slums, and who create the conditions that give us violence.

But we surely can be effective in enforcing the law against the trouble-makers. We are a city of law and order.

Rioting In Atlanta

The most surprising thing about the riot in Atlanta is that it should have happened there. For Atlanta, by general agreement, has been a model for southern cities in its race relations.

Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. has walked the last mile in search of racial peace. He had almost solid Negro support when elected. He was one of the few southerners to testify in support of the 1964 civil rights bill. He has added Negroes to the police force. Atlanta's schools and city facilities are totally integrated. Many Negroes are employed by business establishments and the city has sent eight Negroes to the state legislature.

All of this counted for nothing, however, when a suspected Negro car thief was wounded while trying to escape from arresting police officers. When some 500 or more Negroes took to the streets the mayor climbed on top of an automobile and tried to reason with them. He was shouted down. Taunts of "white devil" and "black power" greeted him. Finally the mob surged around the car and the mayor was jarred loose from his perch and fell to the street.

No, this didn't happen in a Birmingham or a Selma. It happened in Atlanta. Little wonder that the Rev. Martin Luther King Sr., who lives in Atlanta, was heard to ask: "What do they want? The mayor came down. He tried to speak to them and they wouldn't listen. What do they want?"

It was a good question, but hard to answer. For most of the members of the mob may not have known themselves what they wanted—unless it was an excuse to throw rocks and rant about police brutality.

The mayor says the riot was deliberately caused by some of Stokely Carmichael's SNCC henchmen, and he may be right. For the mob began shouting "kill the white cops" after SNCC representatives, according to the police, spread the false word that the suspected car thief "had been shot while handcuffed and that he was murdered."

Whatever may have been the case with the rioters, it seems clear that what the SNCC people want is trouble, trouble, trouble. And that is what they are going to get, though not in the form they want, if this sort of madness keeps up.

Negroes' Place

Dear Sir:

If there was ever a race of people in the history of man that should be thankful that their lot in life was improved by the people of another race it is the American Negro.

Some 250 years ago they were savages in the jungles of Africa. There were other civilizations that had prospered on lands that were far less fair to the provision of a livelihood for man than the luscious and arable lands of Africa. Yet, while civilization was following its tortuous pace in these countries, the savages in the Dark Continent were practicing cannibalism.

Misguidedly, some of these white people, thought that blacks, living as savages and as cannibals, were animals, and they took them as slaves.

Perhaps, that is the best thing that could have happened to them, for otherwise, they, as a race would never have known the benefits of this great country.

My colored friends, while your ancestors were savages and no doubt doing what was right by their customs of the day, eating each other, the forefathers of this country were preparing those great documents of human liberty, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill Of Rights.

Does that mean anything to you? Cannot you understand that there is a path of history, the history of man's efforts to find a basis of law whereby one can live in peace with the other? Cannot you understand that the documents mentioned above are the nearest to perfection that have ever been achieved? Do you not understand that to destroy these laws is to destroy the very source of those things you say that you want - even those things that you are now beginning to demand as belonging to you.

True, the implementation of the law is not perfect. There are many instances where people of all colors have been dealt unfairly by the law - also by the men who administered the law. But, what if there were no law? What then? Do you want to revert to savagery? There is no other answer. Either there is law or there is savagery!

So now you have set yourselves on a path of violence to take what you have been led to believe by your power-hungry leaders belongs to you.

The first question of course is how can you say that it belongs to you? Did you build it? Could you build it? Could you run it? It's just that simple; if you cannot answer yes to all three questions then the final question is "How would you live - that is, if you had to depend on yourself?"

If you had no law, as your leaders are now teaching you, do you intend to live in savagery? Shall you have cannibalism? Maybe that is the way you intend to live, for as long as the strong last, after you have destroyed everything, as you did in Watts and are doing in Chicago.

Rather than face such a disheartening outlook, I should think that it would be wise to be thankful for the privilege that you have to live in this great country - the only country in the world where a man has a freedom of choice.

Once one recognizes that this country, in spite of all its inequalities by today's standards, is still the country of the most individual freedom and thereby the best country in which to live then an effort on the part of that one will be made to preserve his position in the world. After all, there is no other place to go.

The Principles

Dear Sir:

It is most interesting to read the statement that William M. Garrett, a Democratic candidate for the office of state treasurer, sent to Governor McNair and the press on Friday. Garrett urged the governor to use "every means within your power to allow our Republican opposition to place a nominee on the general election ballot. Can we, as Democrats, say 'the people' had an opportunity to choose? I feel every voter should be afforded freedom of choice at the polls."

Prior to this statement we have had no Wade Hampton, Ben Tillman, Cole Blease or "Cotton Ed" Smith to voice the sentiment of the people.

Anyone will have to admit that it took a great deal of moral courage in this man who would risk political defeat rather than surrender a shred of principle.

Mr. Bernard Baruch's father, Dr. Simon Baruch, addressing the convention of the S. C. Medical Society, of which he was president, in 1873, quoted an Arabian sage: "What good comes from Ali's sword, if it be sheathed; What good from Sadi's tongue, if it be silent."

If we do not adhere to the principles of this man, we can well say; "Here lies a decent people who wanted love, not empire, and got neither; who tried to trade power for popularity and lost both."

We might also say that here lies a nation of advertisers who knew how to change the consumers taste in cigarettes, but were themselves manipulated on all issues that really mattered to their salvation.

Every voter would do well to read and reread this statement, it is not the statement of a politician, but of a man of true principle.

You have been playing "footsies" with the Negroes possibly in an effort to gain nationwide acclaim as their champion in one of the South's largest cities. In fact, it appears that you were on the verge of becoming a renegade to the white race.

It is quite evident that you have little or no knowledge of the Negroes' basic character which has traits reaching back to the jungle tribal code. They are prepared, at a moment's whim, to butcher every white man, woman, and child.

You made of yourself a most ridiculous figure running about in the crowd shouting for the darkies to "go home" while a pack of them were following on your heels advising them to stay put and shout "police brutality".

It is too bad that the Negroes, after toppling you off the top of the car, didn't initiate you into some of the tribal rites their ancestors inflict upon helpless captives. I think that a good many of the white people to whom you have rendered so many disservices would heartily approve of you being a sacrificial victim of your beloved blacks. Perhaps you should surrender yourself to "Black Power" and let them make of you a martyr. Think of the massive publicity you would receive --- your name would go down in history!

Alert Atlanta Police Nip Possible New Riot in Bud

ATLANTA (UPD) — Reports another mob was forming sent a police emergency squad rushing into Atlanta's riot-torn Negro district yesterday. Officers broke up a group of about 100 persons and arrested 10 who refused to disperse.

Some of the Negroes had "black power" emblems pasted on their shirts, proclaiming: "We're the greatest."

The 10 persons taken into custody were loaded into two police wagons for the trip to jail. Unlike Tuesday, when Negroes tried to overturn the police vans, there was no attempt to interfere with the arrests.

After the brief flurry of excitement, the riot squad — armed with shotguns, tear gas and submachine guns — withdrew to the edge of the Negro area, known as the Summerhill section, but remained on standby.

Mustering point for the city's forces was the parking lot of the new Atlanta baseball stadium, where the city set up a refreshment stand for officers, many of whom have had very little sleep since the rioting erupted Tuesday.

and without talking it over with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

"I'm an independent Democrat in this fight," he said.

Roosevelt's decision could cut seriously into the vote for the Democratic candidate, City Council President Frank D. O'Connor, and boost Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's chances for re-election.

However, some support normally going to Rockefeller may go to Conservative Party candidate Paul L. Adams, 51, academic dean of Roberts Wesleyan College near Rochester. Adams was nominated by the Conservatives in Saratoga Springs yesterday.

The Republicans will renominate Rockefeller in Rochester today.

Answering criticism that their nomination of Roosevelt will assure the reelection of Rockefeller, the Liberal Party last night revealed results of a statewide poll which it said showed that O'Connor would beat Rockefeller by 600,000 votes, even with Roosevelt running.

The son of the late President said two weeks ago that the Democratic nomination was boss-controlled and that O'Connor had been promised it a year ago.

Roosevelt's choice by the Liberal Party's policy committee—it must be ratified by a nomination today—marks the first time in its 22-year history that the party has not endorsed the candidate of the Democratic Party for governor.

The liberals usually draw from 250,000 to 350,000 votes on their line. This can be a determining factor in a close race.

Week of November 28, 1965

GOVERNMENT BY BLACKJACK

How do you do, ladies and gentlemen. I am your CAPITOL REPORTER, former U. S. Representative, Donald L. Jackson, prepared here with Broadcast No. 112, GOVERNMENT BY BLACKJACK. The power to tax has been called the power to destroy. It is equally true in this day of heavy federal taxation and lavish government handouts, that the power to withhold federal funds from a lower echelon of government is the power to render cities, counties and states impotent to conduct their essential work at the local levels of government. To make complete the dependance of local government upon the central federal power, it is essential to break down traditional governmental groupments by superimposing upon municipal and county governments a form of superior government at the grass roots level of America. We'll return to the blackjack wrapped in a money bag after a brief message.

"LEAST GOVERNMENT THE BEST GOVERNMENT" Thos. Jefferson

Historically, and as a result of prolonged debate in the Constitutional convention, the people of America have been charged with self-rule. To insure that government would not revert to the forms from which the framers of the constitution had themselves escaped, only certain and limited powers were assigned to the Federal agency, with all others specifically reserved in Article 10 to the states and to the people.

This reservation of powers was not capricious. It evolved as the product of personal experience. Eighteenth Century America and the men who forged the Constitution of the United States carried on their work ever mindful of the conditions and circumstances which had forced an exodus from the relative security of the Old World to the forbidding and hostile shores of the New. Uppermost in the minds of the men who labored to frame a unique, and in fact, heretical blueprint for Government, was the certain knowledge that powerful central authority and freedom from the individual could not co-exist.

CONSTANT CHECK

The Government most responsive to the will of the people is that form in which elected or appointed officials are close enough to those they represent to sense, almost instinctively, shifts in public temper and opinion. The essence of the Republican form is that those citizens who are selected by other citizens for public service must establish and maintain a rapport with the constituent element if service is to be meaningful. Anything that tends to isolate public servants from those they represent at subordinate levels of government, paves the way for the accretion of additional and dangerous powers in higher echelons. The greatest protection enjoyed by a free people are public officials immediately available for the redress of grievance. City councilmen, mayors, supervisors, selectmen and other municipal officers elected to serve in clearly defined areas, and charged with specific duties for which they are personally responsible, constitute the best examples of the Republican form in practice. Sins of commission or omission can be pin-pointed where responsibility is fixed and where there are no grey areas of overlapping jurisdiction.

REGIONAL PLANNING

Under various guises, and using federal funds as a lever to force compliance, the federal establishment has embarked upon a series of programs designed to "regionalize" large areas without regard to existing geographic boundaries. One of these undertakings is called "Metropolitan Government". Stated simply, Metropolitan Government means the superimposition of a New administrative agency over an entire area or region. Metropolitan Government may be restricted to a relatively small area, or it may encompass a number of communities or municipal corporations. The problems peculiar to one area in the Metropolitan complex thus becomes a general problem of all units. It follows that official responsibility for the proper discharge of the duties incumbent upon a municipal officer becomes difficult if not impossible to fix with scores or perhaps hundreds of local and federal office holders and appointees, involved. The vital element of personal rapport becomes the first casualty to planned confusion parading as "Metropolitan Government."

LOS ANGELES PLAN

Under continuing and growing federal pressure, coupled with a threat to reduce or cut off federal money for other projects, the Los Angeles City Council is presently grappling with a program called SCAG - S.C.A.G. SCAG, or the Southern California Association of Governments, is a typical example of federal intrusion into the affairs of the people, an intrusion specifically prohibited by the Constitution. The program, presented by the planners as a device by which future federal intervention may be avoided, is clearly the product of Great Society planning in the area of urban affairs. If more proof is required to establish the intensity of Washington in a matter of this kind one need go no further than the words of Mr. Calvin Hamilton, master planner for the City of Los Angeles. On November 10th, Mr. Hamilton said, in part, and I quote:

"The Federal Government has made it clear that they will not grant any money or federal funds to open space until there is a regional planning program....if the city is to receive any federal funds, we must join SCAG."

A COUNTRY OF REGIONS

Mr. Hamilton's phrase "regional planning" emphasizes the intent of Great Society planners to compartment the nation into a number of "regions", each of which must, under the provisions of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, prepare and submit to Washington, D. C. a comprehensive "master plan" for the region. The plan, and again we stress, without the suggestion of constitutional authority, must be approved in Washington by the architects of the Great Society, and the agents and officials who accompany the federal money to the region where it is to be disbursed, will, of course, be empowered to override and to veto any local proposal at variance with the approved blueprint. You can get in to talk with your councilman now, but I suggest that getting an appointment with the Secretary of Commerce or with any of his agents who will exercise final control over "regional" matters will be considerably more difficult.

MAKEUP OF SCAG

The proposed organization of SCAG (and any of you viewers and listeners may awaken one day to find SCAG's blood-brother on the doorstep) reminds one of the elements which comprise the United Nations - the Security Council and the General Assembly. The "General Assembly" organization would include delegates from six Southern California counties, and from each of 142 cities in those counties wishing to affiliate. Los Angeles County, as the most populous of the counties involved, would carry a proportionate share of the non-federal financial load. The "Security Council", so to speak, would be composed of one delegate from each of six cities in the participating counties; 1 Supervisor from each county; and a permanent delegate from Los Angeles, presumably the Mayor of that city. If you find this whole thing a little difficult to grasp, ladies and gentlemen, don't despair. You have plenty of company!

VOLUNTARY COOPERATION . . . OR ELSE!

The advocates of such regional undertakings as Metropolitan Government, SCAG, Urban Renewal, and other federally-initiated and subsidized undertakings, point out the all-too-obvious complexities confronting local subdivisions of government. Admittedly, population explosion, mass migration of people, diminished tax revenues at the municipal and county levels of government have rendered infinitely more difficult the administration of the public business. Add to these difficulties the unconcealed threat of a cut-off of federal funds unless local officials acquiesce in the demands of the federal planners, and what sometimes appears a willingness on the part of harassed office holders to jump on the federal band-wagon becomes somewhat clearer. It is not so much that the problems confronting our people are impossible of solution at the grass roots, however. Left to their own devices, free to exercise their own initiative, Americans have always demonstrated a unique capacity for landing on their feet following a social, political or economic dislocation or explosion. It is only when they are shackled, herded, blackjacked into compliance with orders from on high that their native judgments become confused and their traditional self-reliance falters. Mr. and Mrs. John America are, first of all, individualists. When something goes wrong, when taxes soar out of sight, when they think that money is being wasted, they want someone to talk to. One can corner Mayor Smith or Councilman Brown, but even if one understands what the Great Society is, or is supposed to be, it's hard to get it on the telephone.

SCAG POSTPONED TEMPORARILY

Before some of this Reporter's audience in other areas sees or hears this broadcast, the matter of SCAG will have been decided as far as Southern California is concerned. It is to the credit of the City Council of Los Angeles that they laid the matter aside for a month in order to allow further study of a very involved proposal. It is to be hoped that the threat of a cut-off of other federal money will not be permitted to influence a final and irrevocable decision in the matter. Meanwhile we urge that our listeners in Southern California communicate their opinions to their own mayors and city councilmen, with a reminder that they are elected to tend shop in their own communities and that if a need for regional representation ever develops, space can be provided on election ballots to accomodate the names of candidates for those positions. This great country isn't a gridded series of "regions" or "areas". Much has been said and written about the main-stream of American life, what it is, what it comprises, and where it is moving. Without laboring these questions, ladies and gentlemen, I would suggest that its source is in the legislative chambers of city and town halls from coast to coast. For it is there that our people speak with authority and with a purpose born of familiarity with their peculiar and non-"regional" problems. Federal money IS important, but even more important is the citizen's right to confront personally his elected representatives and demand an accounting of official acts. This will be lost to you - and to you - and to you - when your address becomes John Doe, Federal Region #9, Redevelopment District #4, Portland Area 8, Zip Code 99999. Remember, ladies and gentlemen, the "least government" is still "the best government".

Mayor Allen of Atlanta, Georgia
Honorable Sir:

We saw the Black Power raid on your city, etc. Enclose some data sent to me so I pass it on to you. Know the truth and the truth shall set us free. It would be the patriotic thing to do to celebrate Constitution Day, the 17th, by a big march of white and also the colored people with strong band music with a cry of "Back to our Constitution under God," and we'll be set free. United Nations under the world gangsters have taken us over, therefore we must get out of the United Nations and stop this vicious take-over now. United we stand, divided we fall. God help us all!

Hear Mayor - No one needs to tell you about what the negroes are doing in the name of civil rights, as it written into the civil rights law where the negro lawfully can burn down building - loot stores after smashing plate glass windows - wrecking automobile and stoning policemen. If you can see with your own eyes they are doing that, the question is, is that part of the civil rights law; Jackson has civil rights law passed so that the negroes can wreck a city - even to beating, and shooting a white man to death in Athens Ga, then he has another law passed that the police must guard the negro while doing these things then should a negro be arrested, the officer that makes the arrest is called to federal court to answer to his conduct while making the arrest, as he is charged with "patricide brutality."

The negro is no longer at these demonstrations read in the newspaper, that Roy Wilkins, the money would stop flowing into

Sir:

As a native of Atlanta I hope the Negroes tear that town apart.

I think people like you and Rastus Mc Bice and Patterson and other renegade southerners have all but ruined that once lovely city.

You have petted and pampered and coddled Atlanta Negroes to the point where they aren't worth a damn. You've peddled integration and allowed them to run wild. You've given dinners for such scoundrels as Martin Luther King and have brought Atlanta to the point of nothing much better than Harlem itself.

You've gotten yourself messed up with the fire department and in general have been one hell of a lousy mayor, and if it weren't for the Negroes and scalawags you couldn't be elected dog catcher.

I hope you are still around when your left-wing chickens come home to roast!

McIntyre's attorney, James Boccardo, claimed Thursday the death was the result of an accident when McIntyre fell on Martinez.

Martinez was jailed Aug. 28 after he was arrested by Sunnyvale Officer Tim Martell and California Highway Patrolman Max Smith. The Sunnyvale man, a Colorado native employed by a carpet cleaning concern in Palo Alto, had a police record involving mostly drunk arrests, but fellow employees described him as "very pleasant and easy to work with."

One employe added, "He was very small and nice mannered."

McIntyre is married and the father of one child. He had served in the sheriff's department for one year and a month with "a clean record."

He was arrested Thursday morning following a six-hour session of the grand jury, which lasted until 2:30 a.m. Thursday. The jury heard 14 witnesses, but not McIntyre.

McIntyre was arraigned before Superior Court Judge Joseph P. Kelly Thursday afternoon and then freed on bail. He will appear for plea at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 23.

The grand jury, in a carefully drawn indictment which eliminated the possibility of a first degree murder trial involving the death penalty, charged McIntyre with "willfully and unlawfully and with malice aforethought" murdering Martinez.

The true bill indictment also said the deputy assaulted Martinez "with force likely to produce great bodily injury" . . . without lawful necessity under color of authority, and at a time when the said defendant

VOWS RIGHTS AID

Reasons for Riot, Dixie Mayor Says

From Los Angeles Times, UPI

ATLANTA—Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. said Thursday, although members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee provoked Tuesday's riot here, living conditions in the Negro area where the violence occurred could have been exploited by other agitators.

After returning from a tour of the riot area, the mayor also strongly endorsed the 1966 civil rights bill.

And he indicated he opposes the amendment which exempts all privately owned one-to-four-family units—about 60 per cent of the nation's housing—from the housing section.

"The intent of this type of legislation is always warped by the opposition," Allen said. "They say it is to deny man the right to sell his house to whomever he wants. Actually, it asserts the right of any man to buy a piece of property that is available for sale. It is to eliminate segregation."

He reiterated his charge SNCC members, including chairman Stokely Carmichael, provoked Tuesday's riot here, living conditions in the Negro area where the violence occurred could have been exploited by other agitators.

Swanton Richard to Bessen had better have a look at this I agree this is wrong, along with Rev King and others should be jailed and the key thrown away. Transparencies Southern.

The two officers who picked up Martinez said he was arrested after he ran his car off the road in a non-injury accident. Martinez was booked as a public drunk.

McIntyre was one of six deputies on duty in the main jail in San Jose for the graveyard shift on Aug. 28. He was assigned to the drunk tank.

A witness before the Grand Jury said McIntyre "kneaded" Martinez.

Boccardo, however, said McIntyre did not even remember the incident.

"He was merely trying to get a drunk prisoner to cooperate and go into the tank . . ." the attorney said. "It was entirely accidental."

Sheriff Charles Prelisnik, who suspended the deputy last week because of the incident, and the district attorney's office refused comment because of recent Supreme Court decisions. They would shed no light on the incident.

The list of witnesses before the grand jury included:

action" to "lower gear."

Johnson proposed:

• The suspension from Sept. 1, 1966 to Jan. 1, 1968 of the 7 per cent credit on taxes for business spending on new machinery and equipment. The suspension, he said, should apply to all investing industries on all orders placed during the 16-month period.

• Suspension of the accelerated depreciation on all buildings and structures started or transferred from one owner to another during the same 16-month period beginning Sept. 1.

(Other story Page 33)

(Commercial and industrial construction was 27 per cent higher during the past 12 months than during the previous year, Johnson told Congress, and has been contributing "unnecessarily" to an inflation of building costs.)

• That the Federal Reserve Board and major commercial banks "cooperate with the President and the Congress" to lower interest rates and to "ease the inequitable burden of tight money."

• That Treasury Secretary Henry Fowler survey all federal agencies authorized to sell securities "to eliminate from the market as much of the federal demand as possible."

• A $3 billion reduction in federal non-defense spending for the current 1967 fiscal year which ends next June 30. All agencies have been asked to "defer, stretch out and otherwise reduce" spending, he said.

Foremost in the special message to Congress was the proposed 16-month suspension of two tax incentives for business investment in new plant and equipment spending which now is getting much of the blame among economists for the present inflationary squeeze.

Although the President did not ask for higher taxes on corporate profits, the effect would be to hit businessmen in the pocketbook.

Johnson proposed suspension of the 7 per cent tax credit for business investment spending, effective Sept. 1 until Jan. 1, 1968. It would apply to all orders taken between those dates, regardless of delivery, and to all industries without exception.

He asked a similar rollback of authority for businessmen to accelerate their tax write-off for the lifelong depreciation.

TV Blast Falls Flat

NEW YORK (AP) — A blast against television by comedian Jerry Lewis plopped into the sea of video Thursday with the impact of a falling pebble on an asphalt pit.

The general reaction among television top folk who admitted having any was, "Ah, you know old Jerry, always clowning around."

Hollywood's prince of the pratfall lowered the boom on the cathode medium at a news conference Wednesday in Boston. He said he was all through with television as it stands—"It's dull, it's canned, it's tasteless."

The outburst came as a surprise to show biz peers in view of Jerry's Olympian calm when his brand-new yacht sank under him recently at Monterey, Calif.

"I think something must have been bugging him," said Ed Sullivan, of the Ed Sullivan Show.

A television subexecutive in New York suggested that Lewis was still aching from an experience a few years ago when his own televised show was the subject of a mercy killing in mid-season.

"He comes out with an anti-TV tirade like this about once a year," the man said.

Upper-echelon people at NBC, ABC and CBS loftily ignored the steaming comic.

In Hollywood, comedian Phil Silvers, television's Sgt. Bilko, shrugged it off.

"We all have mornings like that," he said.

VIET BOMBSHELL

Ky Eyes Draft For President

SAIGON (UPI) — Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky said Thursday he would accept a draft to run as president of South Viet Nam.

Ky's bombshell announcement caught the American diplomatic mission here by surprise and was expected to have widespread repercussions throughout the country.

It came as national police today uncovered a plot by terror squads to booby trap anti-government election posters and kill anyone trying to tear them down.

The plot was the latest incident in the stepped-up Communist campaign to keep people away from the polls in Sunday's national election for a constituent assembly.

Reports of other terror activities filtered into Saigon from widely scattered sections of the country. Terrorists assassinated a village chief, machinegunned to death the wife and three children of a security official, bombed civilians and soldiers and shot children in an attack on a hamlet.

At least four terrorist blasts injured a dozen persons Thursday, and mimeographed death threats were distributed through the mails to virtually all candidates warning them to withdraw before it is too late.

Ky made his announcement at a party marking his 36th birthday. At the same time he indicated he has changed his mind about the need for dissolving the constitutional assembly once it has done its job of writing a constitution and holding another election next year for a legislative assembly.

He said the constitutional as-

Quake Hits Asian Area

PASADENA (UPI) — A major earthquake was recorded Thursday about 7,200 miles west or northwest of here.

It showed a magnitude of 6.8 on the Richter scale and would have been potentially destructive in a populated area, according to Dr. Charles Richter of California Institute of Technology.

The famed seismologist said instruments began recording the temblor at 2:29 p.m.

In Rockville, Md., the National Earthquake Information Center said it located a quake in the Halmahera Island region north of Indonesia.

makes it possible to find jobs for welfare recipients where no jobs existed before, said the governor. Despite the boom, he said, "there is a hard core of inadequately educated, untrained men and women who cling to the ragged edge of employment."

Brown said he has hopes that this program and others could be financed by the Heller plan, a proposal dating from the Kennedy Administration that would refund to states a portion of the taxes collected from them by the federal government.

Brown conceded that a "new revenue program" would be needed by the state if the Heller plan failed to gain federal approval. Under questioning he said this meant new taxes.

In discussing the Rumford fair housing act, the governor said he expected to appoint a commission to study the controversial law within three weeks. He indicated he had been having difficulty in finding a chairman.

Asked whether the commission would include any "Reagan Republicans," Brown replied:

"I'm sure there will be some on it, but you know they're hard to find."

The governor said he opposed as a "delusion" the proposal by Los Angeles Assessor Phil Watson for a mandatory ceiling on taxes.

"Ceilings on taxes never have worked—they never will work," Brown said.

The governor was asked about a recent statement by former Southern California Democratic chairman Carmen Warschaw indicating that she might not support Brown's bid for a third term. He said he would answer this soon in a statement and also make a statement on Supt. of Public Instruction Max Rafferty's policy questions to

Brown and Reagan about education.

But he declined to go into either subject and ended the press conference when reporters tried to go into the subject.

Some officials here disclosed Thursday they considered, but rejected, the idea of bringing charges of insurrection—a crime punishable by death in Georgia—against Carmichael, one of the most militant Negro leaders.

Carmichael and two of his aides, William Ware and Bobby Vance Walton, have been charged with inciting to riot, a misdemeanor. A hearing is set today for Carmichael.

Julian Bond, the Negro representative-elect the Georgia House refused to seat because of his statements against U.S. policy in Viet Nam, resigned Thursday from SNCC.

Bond, who was SNCC communications director, said he was quitting the controversial organization for "personal reasons."

The 26-year-old Bond said he hopes to become active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), in which he already holds membership.

In Washington, Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) took the floor in the House of Representatives and called for a federal crackdown on Carmichael, whom he accused of "inciting riots" in Atlanta and Cleveland.

... Rudi Does It Again

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—The designer who gained world fame two years ago by lopping the tops off women's swim suits eliminated the suit Thursday.

He replaces it with a handful of black plastic pasties strategically arranged, presumably by means of adhesive backing.

"It's perfectly decent," Rudi Gernreich assured his gasping audience. "You will notice the navel has been covered."

His swimwear fashion show for Harmon Knitwear began with this eye opener. The suit of geometrically shaped patches in shiny vinyl is packaged in a plastic bag so small it can be conveniently carried in a change purse.

There followed diaper-cut bikinis that elicited winks, blinks but never a nod, and, for the incurably old-fashioned girl, strapless one-piecers.

With these the tanned lasses pasted so-called body warmers—vinyl dots the size of poker chips, clover shapes or twinkly stars—onto their cheeks and the many bare portions of their torsos.

There were tops on those bikinis, if that is what you want to call those tiny ribbon strips that covered the cleavage but left plenty of side-arm exposure.

"Bikinis will be briefer and briefer, certainly for sunning," Gernreich told a show-room crowd that, though they had already gone about as far as they could go. Exposed hip sides that reduced pants to petite loincloths was still another method he used for diminishing bikinis farther.

"There has been some resistance to the side exposure on bra tops," said the designer.

"It's funny, but you can slash the cleavage all the way to the navel and nobody objects. But some people simply can't accept bare bosoms from the side view."

GOVERNOR RACE

N.Y. Liberals Pick FDR Jr.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Liberal Party of New York State Thursday night chose Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. as its gubernatorial candidate.

In Rochester, meanwhile, the Republican Party chose Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as its standard-bearer. In November's election, then Rockefeller in his bid for a third term will oppose the son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Frank D. O'Connor, who was named the Democratic candidate Wednesday night.

In still another state convention, at Saratoga Springs, the Conservative Party Wednesday nominated college professor Paul L. Adams as its candidate for governor.

Neither of Thursday night's political choices came as a surprise but confirmed that the Empire State will have at least a four-corner race for the governor's mansion.

The Liberal Party usually endorses the Democratic candidate, but this year it is pursuing an independent course.

When Roosevelt, a Democrat, let it be known Wednesday that he would accept Liberal nomination, it was considered all but certain that he would be the candidate.

Thursday night the Liberal convention didn't let him down. He was chosen by a vote of 209 to 33.

Roosevelt had been rebuffed by the Democrats, who chose his father as their gubernatorial candidate in what turned out to be the stepping stone to 12 years in the White House.

Political observers believed the man who would be most hurt by Roosevelt's decision to run as a liberal candidate is his fellow Democrat, O'Connor.

These observers believe that the political drawing power of his family name might draw as many as 600,000 votes the great majority of which would have probably fallen to O'Connor.

Various polls had indicated that O'Connor would have a considerable lead over Rockefeller, but with Roosevelt now in the race things may change decisively.

Even before he decided to run as a Liberal Party candidate independently from the Democrats, Roosevelt, the third son of FDR, had not endeared himself to the Democratic leaders.

Boy Suffocates

WINDSOR (UPI)—The body of a 9-year-old boy was found Thursday inside a refrigerator. The child, Juan J. Medina Jr., apparently had crawled in, the doors closed behind him and he suffocated. The refrigerator was lying on its back in a shop on a prune ranch where his parents live and work.

Julian Bond, the Negro representative-elect the Georgia House refused to seat because of his statements against U.S. policy in Viet Nam, resigned Thursday from SNCC.

Bond, who was SNCC communications director, said he was quitting the controversial organization for "personal reasons."

The 26-year-old Bond said he hopes to become active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), in which he already holds membership.

In Washington, Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) took the floor in the House of Representatives and called for a federal crack-down on Carmichael, whom he accused of "inciting riots" in Atlanta and Cleveland.

"Carmichael and his anarchist group belong behind bars and the quicker we get him there the better off this country is going to be," Hays said.

A round of applause went up from the 50 members present following Hays' brief talk.

Atlanta Mayor Allen, who directed police in restoring order to the Summerhill district where Tuesday's riot occurred, met with city department heads Thursday to determine whether any serious services need to be expanded into the area.

He said most Negro residents of Atlanta are well housed, "but there are still some isolated areas of substandard housing and dissatisfaction."

Allen praised the Atlanta Summit Conference, a coalition of Negro civil rights leaders, for publicly deploring the violence and working to head off further trouble. "We are involved in the same civil rights cause they are in," Allen said, "although the trouble the other day had nothing to do with civil rights."

Negroes began sailing missiles at police Tuesday after SNCC members exhorted them in a demonstration to protest the "murder" of a Negro auto theft suspect who was shot, but not critically wounded, while fleeing a white policeman. Allen termed the shooting "justified in the line of duty."

Carmichael returned to the Summerhill section Thursday and made a door-to-door tour telling residents he wasn't responsible for the rioting.

"The racist mayor and white racist papers said we started a riot and ran," Carmichael said. "We did not start it and we will not run away."

... Rudi Does It Again

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—The designer who gained world fame two years ago by lopping the tops off women's swim suits eliminated the suit Thursday.

He replaces it with a handful of black plastic pasties strategically arranged, presumably by means of adhesive backing.

"It's perfectly decent," Rudi Gernreich assured his gawping audience. "You will notice the navel has been covered."

His swimwear fashion show for Harmon Knitwear began with this eye opener. The suit of geometrically shaped patches in shiny vinyl is packaged in a plastic bag so small it can be conveniently carried in a change purse.

There followed diaper-cut bikinis that elicited winks, blinks but never a nod, and, for the incurably old-fashioned girl, strapless one-piecers.

With these the tanned lasses pasted so-called body warmers—vinyl dots the size of poker chips, clover shapes or twinkly stars—onto their cheeks and the many bare portions of their torsos.

There were tops on those bikinis, if that is what you want to call those tiny ribbon strips that covered the cleavage but left plenty of side-arm exposure.

"Bikinis will be briefer and briefer, certainly for sunning," Gernreich told a show-room crowd that, though they had already gone about as far as they could go. Exposed hip sides that reduced pants to petite loincloths was still another method he used for diminishing bikinis farther.

"There has been some resistance to the side exposure on bra tops," said the designer.

"It's funny, but you can slash the cleavage all the way to the navel and nobody objects. But some people simply can't accept bare bosoms from the side view."

What Negroes Really Want

In all the furor in recent years over rights for Negroes, little real effort has ever been made to determine exactly what the Negro-in-the-home really wants. "Freedom Now" has been the rallying cry, instant prosperity the indication. But the precise details have been lacking.

Now a survey conducted for the Senate subcommittee on executive reorganization—the one which has been conducting hearings on the plight of the cities—has made a stab at finding out what the average Negro family really wants. And the answers are not very surprising, though Martin Luther King and Stokely Carmichael probably don't like them.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE'S survey, conducted by the John F. Kraft firm, revealed that the Negro in the "ghetto":

- X ✓ Isn't particularly interested in civil rights laws;
- X ✓ Loathes welfare programs because they force families to break up;
- X ✓ Isn't worried about "police brutality" because he lives in a state of near-anarchy, and actually wants more police protection;
- X ✓ Rejects forced desegregation of schools, but wants schools that will teach children basic discipline, manners and personal hygiene.

Senator Abraham Ribicoff, chairman of the subcommittee, said the survey was conducted in carefully-controlled interviews in Watts, Harlem, Chicago and Baltimore, using especially-trained Negro interviewers to overcome the "whitey" barrier.

THE SLUM AREA Negro's objection to welfare programs is that family instability is one of the prime causes of difficulties among the poorer Negroes. But where an unskilled Negro father finds it difficult to support his family, welfare programs help out only if he breaks away from his family. What the Negroes of the slums want, the surveyors report, is job training so they can get off relief and keep the family together.

HARLEM RESIDENTS were particularly strong in their demand for stopping crime on the streets. Whole neighborhoods, the surveyors reported, have been virtually abandoned to dope addicts ready to kill, maim or steal for a "fix." The Negroes want more police protection, so they can walk, shop, work and live in safety.

The results of this survey speak well for the Negro families of the big city slums, for they show that the aspirations of the average Negro there are sound and in keeping with the aspirations of most other Americans. But the survey findings suggest that the civil rights leaders and the political liberals are chasing the wrong moonbeams.

INSTEAD OF laws and court decisions liberalizing the protection of the individual Negro from the brutal arm of law enforcement, the Negroes want more police protection.

Instead of laws and "guidelines" forcing an arbitrary quota-system integration in schools, the Negroes want better education and stricter discipline in their community schools.

Instead of a dole and a poverty war, the Negro wants to learn job skills with which he can support himself and his family.

Instead of government programs to take over his children as toddlers, the Negro wants an opportunity to support and rear them himself.

The survey is a mighty good starting place for some re-thinking by all of us—from private citizen to public official to Negro "leaders." There may not be as much politics in the changed emphasis. But there would be a lot more common sense and potential.

SUBVERTING NEGRO CHURCHES

Created doubt, lack of confidence, suspicion; setting up situations that bring about racial bitterness, violence and conflict; putting forth demands so unrealistic that race relations are worsened; attacking everybody in disagreement as reactionaries, fascists, Ku Kluxers among whites and Uncle Toms among Negroes, constitute the red's pattern of operation.

Fortunately, the overwhelming majority of Negroes, in whose name the Communists and their ilk presume to speak, have not fallen for the blandishments of the Reds. They know a red light when they see one. The same cannot be said of many Negro intellectuals carrying the ball for Communists. Since the Communists have always looked upon Negro intellectuals as "shallow," "superficial," "phrasemongers" and "incompetents" "looking for a loaf when they, on a basis of ability, are not worthy of a crumb," their pro-communist behavior becomes all the more tragic and ludicrous.

Only after the order came from Moscow in the 1934-35 period to win over the Negro intellectual by deceptive flattery and adulation did the red's public attitude toward them change. The Kremlin concluded that these "superficial phonies" could serve the cause of Communism.

A large number of Negro ministers are all for the Communists. Some are prominent and influential; others are "run of the mill." They in common believe that beating the racial drums is a short cut to prominence, money and the realization of personal ambitions even if the Negro masses are left prostrate and bleeding--expendables in the mad scramble for power.

Abner W. Berry, columnist in The Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist Party, recently praised they ministers as fulfilling their "historic role," i.e., delivering the Negro into the hands of the Communists. Neither his pen nor his lips had such praise prior to the 1934-35 period. Then the Moscow line was clear.

The resolution on the Negro Question stated:

"In the work among the Negroes, special attention should be paid to the role played by the churches and preachers who are acting on behalf of American imperialism. The Party must conduct a continuous and carefully worked out campaign among the Negro masses, sharpened primarily against the preachers and the churchmen, who are the agents of the oppressors of the Negro race."

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES AND VIETNAM

"The Council's views were presented in a statement which was adopted by a vote of 23 in favor, 10 opposed, and six absentions, at the conference in Madison, Wisconsin. It is the first statement on the Vietnam war to be made by a major U.S. religious body..."

A False View of the Problem

The NCC's general board's statement, which drew feature attention in the official newspaper of the U.S. section of the international communist conspiracy, exhibited a strange view of our nation's resistance to communist aggression and terror in South Viet Nam. According to an AP news item in The Tulsa Tribune of December 3, the NCC's statement warned that our policy of resistance to communist terror and aggression in Viet Nam could not result in a victory which would "compensate for the distrust and hatred throughout the United States that is being generated" because of our "overwhelming military strength to kill more and more and more dark-skinned Asians."

In view of such an oversimplification and false concept of the Viet Nam problem, it is obvious that the NCC group would favor our nation's bowing to the communists' demand to get out of Viet Nam. However, it did put a condition on such proposed withdrawal. According to the article in The Worker of December 7, "The Council expressed its support of 'the phased withdrawal of all (U.S.) troops and bases from Vietnamese territory,' but only 'if and when they can be replaced by adequate international peace-keeping forces, composed of military contingents capable of maintaining order while the peace settlement is being carried out.'..." This, of course, means a United Nations police force, and it was one of a number of points in the NCC's Viet Nam statement which prompted the long, feature, front page article in The Worker.

The Worker also reported to conspirators that the NCC suggested as one alternative a "coalition" of the

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I hope the good people in Mississippi will not become too resentful or discouraged over the present invasion. It would indeed be a tragedy if Mississippi should react violently, just as the rest of the country is beginning to realize the truth concerning the Civil Rights movement. We have many informed friends in every state who are not fooled by the Huntleys, Brinkleys, Drew Pearsons, etc.

There are many people right here in Miss. who have been too busy or too lazy to inform themselves of what's happening all over the country. How many of your readers ever heard of Leonard Patterson, Julia Brown, George Schuyler or Alvin Smith?

If some of you are not familiar with their names, it's time to find out who they are and what they are doing. All have something in common. They are patriotic Negro Americans who believe in freedom for all, the Constitution of the United States, private enterprise instead of government handouts and who believe in law and order. They are bitterly against Communism, Socialism and big government. They take no stand on integration vs segregation. Their unanimous creed is "Let's remove the Communists influence from the Civil Rights movement, then all problems can be worked out in peace and harmony".

These four Americans have dedicated their lives to informing and helping their people learn the truth. They have earned the respect of every Conservative who knows their story. I don't expect to see them on "Meet the Press" quite yet, but it is helpful to know that they are doing more than their share to save this nation. Their influence is beginning to be seen and heard through speeches, editorials, newspaper articles, etc. And the formation of many Negro anti-Communist groups.

My reasons for writing the above information is to give hope and encouragement to all of the citizens of Mississippi. No matter how many problems we are faced with, the solutions are there too, if we will only take the trouble to look.

A LOOK AT THE SNCC

By Dr. Billy Hargis

"The SNCC (Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee plans to precipitate a crisis in Mississippi of such magnitude that 'the Federal Government will have to take over the State,' the organization's 23 year old national chairman said here yesterday. The method will be to 'saturate' the State with volunteer voter-registration workers from the Nation's college campuses 'on a given day or week' early next summer, John Lewis said.

"This, he anticipates, will result in 'hundreds of thousands' of Negroes 'standing in the voter registration places all over the State at one time..' That in turn will cause 'mass arrests --maybe 75,000 people in the Mississippi jails'--a situation Lewis figures it will be impossible for the Federal government to ignore

"Lewis conceded that there is 'bound to be some kind of conflict, some kind of violence,' arising from the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee's plan. "We hope it won't happen," he said, 'but from past experience it probably will.' But the possibility of violence is justified, he said, because 'out of this conflict, this division and chaos, will come something positive.'..." Of course, a complete take over of the South by the Federal Government, as suggested by John Lewis, is one of the goals for which the communist conspirators have been agitating during the past several years.

SNCC AND THE BLOC VOTE

The SNCC is one of a number of organizations which is extremely interested in a Negro bloc vote. A leaflet it issued in 1965 entitled "We want THE VOTE" stated that "The Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) has been working in the rural black belt South since the summer of 1961..."

In this leaflet, SNCC calls for new elections to be held in Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi after federal registrars are set up under the so-called "civil rights" law. The pamphlet asks the question, "Can sufficient numbers be registered within six to nine months after the federal registrar is appointed?"

QUEST FOR WAYS TO HELP THE NEGRO AND HIS COMMUNITY

City officials are under attack by hoodlums who claim they are interested in the upgrading of the Negro. Poverty funds are being wasted to rehabilitate the Negro community, it is being told. Dilapidated buildings and buildings vandalized by Negroes are being torn down.

It is felt that this program is missing the entire boat. Windows are smashed out of public school in the Negro community just for the fun of it. In some of the schools all of the windows are smashed out on the entire side. In other schools hundreds of windows were smashed out. Last year the school system spent over $40,000 just replacing windows. This $40,000 could have been used to buy new books or to increase the quality of education of schools in the Negro community.

There must be a crash educational program directed at the adults to improve the respect of family, love and respect for community, and respect for school and public property. Many of the dilapidated buildings are in bad shape. This is encouraged by the Civil Rights hoodlums. Many of the Negroes will go onto private property, call cameramen and newspapermen, and have their pictures taken in the buildings. They even bring children into the building. This is a terrible thing. Trespassing on private property to get pictures taken, and claiming they are attempting to clean up the neighborhood, while the very Negroes are shouting about tearing down the dilapidated buildings.

Many mysterious fires occurred in this city. Many members of this same group petitioned Mayor Kowal to tear down these buildings, and when they lost their petition in the Supreme Court, the fires mysteriously started each and every night; many of them. The fire truck had to patrol the Negro community to be on hand when the fire started. This resulted in insurance companies cancelling Negro insurance policies for homes and furniture. The Negroes complained to the Governor for investigation of insurance companies to find the reason behind cancellation. Everyone knows that insurance companies do not insure bad risks.

Poverty Funds Finance Violence-Preaching Racial Agitator

In 1965 the Office of Economic Opportunity gave Harlem Youth Opportunities Unlimited-Associated Community Teams (HARYOU-ACT) $40,000 to be used by the Harlem Black Arts Repertory Theater-School. The head of this theater-school is LeRoi Jones, a Negro playwright who hates whites and stages dramas for young actors in which violence and revenge against "whites" are the main elements.

According to an Associated Press story by Hollie West on December 2, 1965, Jones is quoted as stating, "I don't see anything wrong with hating white people. Harlem must be taken from the beast and gain its sovereignty as a black nation."

LeRoi Jones once wrote, "The force we want is of 20 million spooks (Negroes) storming America with furious cries and unstoppable weapons. We want actual actual brutality."

An editorial in the SHREVEPORT (La) TIMES, of December 18, 1965, revealed that the Office of Economic Opportunity defended the gift of $40,000 of U.S. taxpayers' funds to the white-hating Negro, LeRoi Jones, by stating: "He is a legitimate playwright--whatever you may think of his views. We knew about it and we granted the money, and we have no apologies."

A cache of arms ranging from the slingshot to a sawed-off rifle were discovered by police in the Black Arts Repertory Theater, according to an AP dispatch of March 17, 1966.

Poverty Funds Used to Pay Off Negro Mob

A column by Fulton Lewis, Jr., on September 27, 1965, revealed:

Livingston L. Wingate, executive director of N.Y.'s HARYOU-ACT, conceded last week that he had used Federal funds to hire members of the Black Muslims and other black supremacist groups.

When HARYOU-ACT came under Federal and city investigation because of "loose bookkeeping" and the mysterious disappearance of several hundred thousand dollars, Livingston Wingate confided to the National Urban League on October 15 that he had juggled the William Campbell Douglass is a physician, author and nationally known leader in the anti-Communist movement. His telephone network, "Let Freedom Ring!" stretches from Seattle to Boston and from Miami to Los Angeles. There are now over 100 "Let Freedom Ring!" stations delivering hard-hitting, tape-recorded, anti-Communist messages by telephone 24 hours a day across the country.

Dr. Douglass was born in Maryland in 1926 and has lived in Florida since the age of five. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Rochester (New York) in 1949 and his M.D. from the University of Miami (Florida) School of Medicine in 1957. He served in the U.S. Navy for eight years, five of these as a flight surgeon.

While in the Navy, he wrote an article for American Opinion magazine under the nom de plume of "Commodore Mayday USN." This article exposed the leftwing bias of the library aboard the aircraft carrier, USS Independence.

Dr. Douglass has had articles published by the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, the nation's third largest medical society.

In 1964 Senator Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., attacked Dr. Douglass in an address on the floor of the U.S. Senate because Douglass had revealed the leftist record of Senator Javits.

Dr. Douglass has appeared on both the Huntley-Brinkley and Walter Cronkite TV shows on which he discussed his anti-Communist activities.

In April, 1966, Dr. Douglass appeared on a National Educational Television (NET) show and presented his views concerning the growing anti-Communist movement within this country.

Although The Eagle's Feather is a work of fiction set in the 1970's, it is built, as with most fiction, on a framework of plausibility and background information.

James H. Meridith, is a Mississippian by birth who attended the University of Mississippi and graduated. He has since travelled to various parts of Africa and now has become a resident of the State of New York. Being a resident of this huge State, he is lost among the other millions. Mr. Meridith needed publicity. He wants to run for public office, so, therefore, he had to make a scapegoat simply to build a reputation of a hasbeen or, you might say, one who never was. Mr. Meridith tried, with others, to stage a march through Mississippi to get Negroes to register to vote. Later on this theme changed to have Negroes so they will not fear.

While Mr. Meridith went on his march he had his publicity cameraman present and his minister. He received virtually no publicity, for no one gave a hoot about his marching down the highway in Mississippi. It was too obvious!

A white man hid in the bushes along the highway with what you might call a popgun, which shot buckshot. He shouted out to Meridith, "Meridith, I want you." "James Meridith, I want you!" This gave Meridith ample opportunity to take cover. This white gentleman shot a volley of buckshot fire hitting James Meridith. He then shot a second time and it missed. It is obvious that buckshot fire will kill a bird, but you would have to be at close range to kill a human being.

This white man is being charged with attempted murder of James Meridith. Are you so gullible to believe that this man really wanted to murder James Meridith? The truth of the matter is, this was a planned plot to obtain publicity for Mr. Meridith. If this white man had wanted to shoot and kill James Meridith he would have gotten a rifle gone to high ground and fired the fatal shot. He wouldn't have been in the open. After he had been apprehended, he casually lit up his cigarette.

What happened? Mr. Meridith's cameraman was taking pictures as James Meridith hit the ground. It is evident that he was prepared to take a picture

All the instructions from Moscow at the time ordered reds to "combat the influence of the church" because the church, "by offering to the Negro worker and peasant for the miseries they are enduring in this world, compensation in heaven, are befogging the minds of the Negro workers and peasants, making them a helpless prey to capitalism and imperialism."

The public denunciation of Negro "sky pilots" (A cynical Communist name for clergy) was likewise stopped on orders from Moscow. The deeply religious Negro masses whom the Kremlin wanted to use as expendables in the struggle for power shied away from the "Party." A frontal attack on religion resulted in isolation from Negroes. Therefore, deception was to be tried. The honeyed phrase replaced harsh words. The smile replaced the smirk. The velvet glove covered the mailed fist. Humility replaced arrogance. The handshake replaced hostility. All that was distasteful and wicked in the past was to be forgotten in the face of "a need for a common front against the white oppressors." The devil was sick - - an angel he would be.

Application of the new line embarked the Communists on an era of outstanding success in infiltrating and penetrating the Negro Church.

White ministers acting as missionaries, using the race angle as bait, aided in the cultivation of Negro ministers for work in the Red solar system of organizations. Bribery through gifts, paid lectures, flattery through long applause at staged rallies, favorable mention in the red controlled press were not the only methods employed to corrupt the Negro ministers. The use of sex and perversion as a means of political blackmail was an accepted red tactic.

At the same time that all this was going on at the top, the "comrades" were building cells below in the church "to guarantee that decisions made at the top would be brought down to the congregation."

The importance attached to this work is clearly shown in the report of the speeches of Earl Browder, then General Secretary of the Communist Party, and Gerhard Eisler, alias Edwards, Moscow representative to the plenary session of the National Committee of the Communist Party in the United States.

SEND BARRY GODDWATER BACK TO WASHINGTON

communist forces, which go under the name of "National Liberation Front," and what the NCC termed as "nationalists"? Of course, coalitions with communist conspirators invariably result in an eventual communist conquest of the government succumbing to such a coalition.

WILL MILLIONS OF INNOCENTS BE MISLED?

The perilous potentiality for damage to our nation lurking in this NCC statement on Viet Nam lies in its plan to influence church members with it. According to The Worker of December 7, "The general board of the National Council directed that the message 'be made widely available to the members of all constituent churches.' .." Most likely, numerous uninformed individuals in these churches will be deceived by this highly misleading statement on Viet Nam which is based on a false concept of Red aggression in Viet Nam.

The NCC's Viet Nam statement encourages readers to "Let peacemaking be the priority of our Christian witness so that we may be truly children of God in these difficult times..." Under whose definition of "peace" is it suggesting this "peacemaking" duty? Certainly the policies which it urges on our government would not bring any true lasting peace, but merely bring the United States and countries throughout the earth closer to enslavement by the Red tyranny. Surrender to communist demands in Viet Nam would bring the "peace" of Red slavery to the South Vietnamese and would be another significant step on the way toward saddling the people of the United States with the same brand of so-called "peace."

In its statement on the Viet Nam question, the NCC's clerical leadership invoked a much used self-defense cliché. According to The Worker article, it contended that those expressing views such as theirs in opposition to U.S. resistance to communist aggression in Viet Nam "should not have their integrity of conscience faulted" because of expressing such views. That, of course, is not the issue. The issue is whether or not their proposals make any sense in light of the critical struggle between communism and the remaining forces of freedom.

funds--$400,000 worth of taxpayers' funds--because the poor had threatened his life. According to a December 6, 1965 article in the CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Wingate had sounded a warning of a Negro uprising in Harlem after funds were cut off. He then went on to state that there had been a tense moment during the summer "when 15,000 kids threatened to break us asunder." To keep faith with "the kids" who had been given job commitments, Wingate said "I reached in and took the money. I didn't give a continental what account it came from."

In other words, Federal poverty funds were used to pay blackmail to a Negro mob!!! Cont'd next month.

before Mr. Meridith was even shot. A picture was taken while the minister was praying, and one while the gunman was firing his two shots. Is that enough to make anyone believe that this white man was out to take the life of James Meridith, or that this white man was actually there to obtain publicity for Mr. Meridith and that little gang that is marching through Mississippi? What was to be accomplished by this march Mr. Meridith is making in Mississippi? Mr. Meridith is not a resident of the State of Mississippi. The Negroes could register to vote if they wanted, so why were they so concerned with this New York Negro? Why was he so concerned with the Mississippians registering to vote, when he lived in the State of New York and 50% of the Negroes in New York State are not even registered voters.

In the State of New York a registered voter, whether he be white or negro, if he is gainfully employed and he needs time off to register or cast his vote at primary or election day, he can get two hours off with pay. Very few Negroes receive the paid two hours off to vote, because very few of them are registered voters.

The pamphlet answers its own question as follows: "Yes. With simple registration procedures and adequate personnel, hundreds of people can be registered each day..." The election of Julian Bond to the Georgia State House of Representatives in the November 1965 elections is a good example of what can happen through the power of an unthinking bloc vote. Bond, who is the publicity director of the SNCC, made a statement that he admired "the courage of those who burned their (draft) cards" and urged draft-age Americans to seek alternatives to the draft. The Georgia House of Representatives denied his seat to him and the issue was on appeal to the Supreme Court at the time we went to press with this pamphlet.

Bond was unopposed in a special election on February 23, 1966, to fill the seat in question. The Georgia House of Representatives was expected to bar him again. Julian Bond's case was taken up vigorously by the communist conspirators. In the February 13, 1966, issue of The Worker, official communist newspaper in the United States, Gus Hall called the action of the Georgia legislature in barring Bond "a dastardly act."

An important aspect of the Julian Bond case has received little publicity and we have seen no daily newspaper which even mentioned it. That is the fact that the DeKalb County, Georgia, branch of the NAACP urged the state legislature to bar him. The statement released by the branch president, Charles E. Price, declared:

"We are urging that action be taken to censure, expel or exclude Rep.-elect Julian Bond from his seat in the Georgia House of Representatives... The position taken (by Bond) is unquestionably un-American and is unbecoming an elected official..." (Human Events, January 29, 1966)

The above mentioned issue of Human Events also reported that two Negro ministers in the Chattanooga, Tennessee, branch of Martin Luther King's SCLC (Southern Christian Leadership Conference) had quit the SCLC in protest against King's support of Bond.

It is not a matter of faulting their "integrity of conscience" but a matter of questioning the value or harm inherent in their viewpoints and objectives which result from such viewpoints. Every informed American knows that continuing surrenders to communism can eventually result only in communist enslavement of the United States. Therefore, when those who promote objectives which would lead toward this end complain that shining the light of truth on these viewpoints and questioning their integrity, they are raising a false issue. Anytime 8 or 9 fires occur of questionable nature in one area, the insurance company is going to re-evaluate their risks. Many of these fires occurred with evidence of arson. Gas cans and gasoline soaked buildings motivated the insurance companies to cancel the insurance policies on these Negro homes because of bad risks. It was evident that a group of sick hoodlums threatened to burn down these buildings.

We have, in the past, tried to awaken the public to the Communist menace. We have sent literatures to various parts of the country. We have telephoned and made direct contact with people, however, we wish we were able to do much more. Our hands are tied because of the necessity for financial support. We need financial contributions and we need them badly. It appears that the same little groups are carrying on all over. Please help us now, that we may help ourselves and others. Thank you!

McCARTHY MUST BE DEFEATED

U. S. Representative McCarthy is from the 39th Congressional district in N.Y. State and we will make an effort to defeat him. Mr. McCarthy has fooled many. Just before going off to Washington, D.C. he had a phone call and was asked to support the regular elected representative from the State of Mississippi, and not to seek the Freedom Democratic so-called Representatives. Mr. McCarthy went to Washington and forgot about the promise he made, and voted instead for the freedom-Democratic party which many believe is Communist inspired. This man must go! Be sure to support and vote Congressman Pillion. Thank you!!

Citizens of Mississippi have been warned to expect a bloody assault upon their state this summer by the National Council of Churches, the World Council of Churches, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee and other integrationist, race agitating groups.

The National Council of Churches has announced it will send a "task force" of men and money into the Mississippi Delta to wage war on what it describes as "persistent" poverty and racial injustice. The Delta project will call for a tentative annual budget of $250,000 with the National Council paying for 60 percent of the cost and the World Council picking up the tab for the remaining 40 percent. Officials of the National Council of Churches are entering into this project with the frank acknowledgment that they expect to become involved-on the Negroes' side-in clashes between white and Negro residents of Mississippi.

Complementing this racial agitation will be what The Harvard Crimson - Harvard University's daily newspaper-has described as an invasion by militant young Negroes of the NAACP and SNCC. In its issue of March 11, The Crimson attributes to Claude Weaver, SNCC worker and Harvard student recently released from jail in Jackson, a statement that "Negroes might start killing the White people in Mississippi pretty soon."

"Yes," Weaver is quoted as saying, "if we wanted to get a small Mau Mau going, it wouldn't be difficult... Might be a nice summer project."

In an editorial of March 12, The Crimson speculates upon the coming invasion of Mississippi as follows:

"This summer will witness a massive daring, probably bloody, assault on the racial barriers of Mississippi..

"The 1964 plan ... calls for an invasion of over 1,000 Peace-Corps- type volunteers, in order to 'shake Mississippi out of the Middle Ages.'"

So there you have it. There is the explanation of why the National Council of Churches is lobbying alongside the NAACP for passage of the infamous civil rights bill in the senate.

No longer content to sponsor such mild interracial activities as its annual observance of "Race Relations Sunday,"

The civil rights revolution would be ignore by White and Negroes in the North as well as in South if certain so called civil rights leaders didn't commit certain crimes then claim that the Klans or other White people committed them.

Bombings, burnings, assaults and murders in the South is evident were committed by members of civil rights gangs, for the sole purpose of giving racial agitators a cause increase money-raising and to secure additional followers. Civil righters commit crimes to place fear in the Negro community to keep them frighten so they won't speak the truth about these pro-Communists individuals and organizations.

Here in Buffalo after I had delivered a vicious attack upon the civil rights organizations in a speech I delivered before the Buffalo Board of Education before I was able to take my seat an official of the NAACP ran up to me and said " We will blow your home up, unless you stop attacking us and join with them." The second time NAACP official threaten to blow my home up was after I had appeared on radio and denounced a plan march on city hall with a call for 10,000 Negroes and White people by the NAACP, I told the radio audience that this plan march was plan and directed and financed by the Communists Party. The march was a flop. The march started off with less than 68 people their ranks swelled to about 128 by the time they reached City Hall.

I was told point blan that my house would be blown up unless I stoped saying things about the NAACP. The NAACP and the Communists Party, plus over 50 Negro and White clergy and over 34 other organizations called for a school boycott of the newly constructed Woodlwan Junior High School, wher about 1,300 Negro and White students attend. I realize that I was faced with. I printed over 40,000 pieces of literature and had it circulated through the community. I appeared on television and radio wrote letters to Editor I appealed to the student to go to school. The Police Commissioner and the Mayor appeared on tel vision to assure the parents no harm would come to their children

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING IS A FRAUD
LIER AND A DECEIVER. HEIROCRITE AND A TROUBLE MAKEER

We have realized for some time that Dr. Martin Luther King is not preacher sent by our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. The Bible warns us of false preachers for the Bible says (Matt. 24:11) "And many false prophets shall arise and shall deceive many." Christians should search the Scriptures of the Holy Bible to ascertain if those individuals calling himself a preacher has been sent by the Lord or sent by the devil. We will show you from the Scriptures that Dr. King is a fraud, a phoniè and he is a servant of and for the devil. King is a minister for the devil and Christians please do not be mislead. You should apply the Scriptures to every professed teacher or minister of God. Isaiah 8:20 " To the law and to the testimony: If they speak not according to This Word it is because there is no light in them." 1-Timothy Chapter 3-(1) "This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work. (2) A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; (3) Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; (4) One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (5) (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the Church of God? (6) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. (7) Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

(8) Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre.

Matt. 7:15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

We have found from the Scripture so listed that anti Luther King is not a minister of God. The doc winds that he teaches and professes non-violence, civil disobedience is not the doctrine of the Holy Bible. St. Mattew's 8 verses 19-20 " I go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen

Dr. King uses illeterate adults and children which have frequently been seen demonstrating after one of their hate rallies conducted in God's Holy Temple after they have been confronted by the local law or troops. With all the hate in their hearts that one can possess they kneel down in the street in public places to pray. The Bible speaks very sternly regarding this, Matt 6:5-And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

Martin Luther King was given the Peace Prize for being such a helper in the Communist conspiracy. This madman hiding behind the cloak of respectability claiming to be a man sent by the Lord but we find he is a man sent by the devil to create hate. He roams the country like a sable typhoid mary infecting the mentally disturbed, illerates and children with perversions of Christian doctrine.

Reading your daily newspaper you will find that he is hurrying from city to city holding hate meetings under the guise they are for civil rights, organizing demonstrations so it will be easy for him to get donations from innocent people who donate their hard-earned cash thinking its

Dear Sir:

I am a White man, having lived my 52 years in Alabama, and I am grieved at the hate that has come between the white and Negro people. I was a farm boy in my youth, working side by side with fine Negro friends. We came through the depression of the thirties together, sharing what we had, poor as hell could make us, never enough to eat, wearing clothes that were worn out 2 years before, but with never any ill-will toward one another. When times got better, we kept the respect we had earned from each other, and relations were peaceful.

Negro and White workers receive the same weekly wage and some cases the Negro is now receiving the larger wage. Negro and White workers at the Baggett Trans. Co. earn $127. weekly.

The older Negroes of the community is concerned about the state of affairs as they now exist. He is willing to work and earn his way, but the younger crowd has fallen for the free hand out. Ninety per cent is enrolled in some sort of welfare plan.

It looks like the next crop of Booker T. Washingtons and George Washington Carvers is going to be mighty thin.

Negroes and White people have always selected their friends and associates and have gotten along just fine.

Race relations will worsen as long as pro-Communists agitators are on loose like Dr. Martin Luther King and cheap politicians exploiting the racial problems for political gains.

Sincerely yours.

Berkeley Pamphlets Describe Details on How to Dodge DraftProspects Urged to Act Strange and Sick
by Seymour Korman

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 16-- A mimeographed sheet is being circulated among students at the University of California at Berkeley telling them how to dodge military service, it was learned today.

The tracts, titled "Brief Notes on the Ways and Means of 'Beating' and Defending the Draft," were being distributed by leftist groups in connection with the demonstrations against American policy in Viet Nam. The sheets also were found on a desk, for anybody to pick up, near Sproul hall, the administration building.

Text of Pamphlet

The text of the pamphlets follows:

"1. Be a C.O. (Conscientious Objector). Write your local draft board requesting the special conscientious objector form SSS-150. Now if you don't have religious or philosophical reasons that cause you to be against war "in any form" don't let it bother you. Mark "yes" on that question anyway, or markout the "in any form" if you want to be more honest about it.

It is fairly certain that your local board will turn you down. However, you can then appeal their decision, be investigated, appeal again and so on. The whole process takes about a year and by that time we will have stopped the war in Viet Nam. For further information on the C. O. process write: Central Committee for Conscientious Objectors, 2006 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., Code 19103, or: War Resisters League, 5 Beakman Street, New York 38, New York. Have fun.

"How to Get 4-F"

2. Have a "demonstration" during your pre-induction physical. This is a way for political objectors to get a 4-F and cause the military a lot of trouble. Arrive at the examining center wearing signs, IND T DRAFT NOW, or GET OUT OF VIET NA, or the like. Wear buttons. Leaflet your fellow prospective inductees

GODLESS COMMUNISM

Communist Party gathered in New York and held its 18th Convention first since 1959. The Communists Party has not been able to fool the people to overthrow, or even change, our government.

The Communists Party has taken over the civil rights movement and is encouraging civil disobedience and race riots.

The Communists inspired racial tension with Communists oriented clergy and civil rights agitators that the Communists call leaders to encourage them on were responsible for the riots in Watts, Harlem, Rochester, Chicago, Cleveland and other cities. The civil rights movement has rocked our towns, cities with hoodlums anarchy attempting to start a civil war

The Communists aim is to weaken law enforcement whereas it will be easier for the Communists to operate. The Communists favorite slogan has been "Police- Brutality". Shouting police-brutality throughout the Negro community has proven to be good subject matter to irresponsible Negroes. These un-educated Negroes fall for this Communists line and before you know it they are claiming police brutality when none has occurred.

The Communists Party, USA receives its orders direct from Moscow

The Communists incited the Negroes to riot for three days in Phila., August 1964. More than 300 persons were injured; more than 200 stores damaged or looted. Cecil B. Moore, director of Phila., NAACP, predicted more trouble to come. Floyd B.

McKissick, Negor, national director of Congress of Racial (CORE) which is a pro-Communists organization stated "The Negro has got to have a bigger slice of the economic pie in this country." He does not say the Negro should work for a "bigger slice".

since many parents had been telephoned that their children would be harmed if they sent them to school. There were 50 to 100 White prostitutes that came into the area going from house to house telling parents not to send their children to school. The only voice in our neighborhood that rang out against the pro-Communists was mine coming from 494 Masten Ave. The day of the called boycott on y 5 students taken part in the boycott. I spent considerable money and received only five dollars in contributions all other expenses were paid out of our family budget. Shortly there after bricks were thrown threw my window frequently. Later the NAACP and CORE was part of a frame up plot against me.

Some crimes have been committed by Klansmen, however many unsolved crimes charged to the Klans were never committed by the KKK.

Those civil rights self appointed leaders that have made such charges knowingly they were false are so low they can walk under a rattlesnake without bending their head.

helping the Negroes.

Dr. King claims police brutality in most cases he is aware of the fact he was lying when he said it. Martin Luther King has created so much trouble telling lies on Southern communities which motivated J. Edgar Hoover to issue the following statement; "Martin Luther King is the most notorious liar in the nation." King goes from city to city claiming he is speaking in behalf of the Negroes in the community. This is a fraud in its lowest kind. In this Republic we elect our representatives. Dr. King is attempting to sneak in the back door to gain leadership. Dr. King acting seizing private property and contributing to civil disobedience encouraging minor children to disrespect law and order undermining law enforcement in every community where he goes and his aides are some of the most questionable people such as Hunter Pitts O'Dell an American Communist Party member. Bayard Rustin a sex prevert and also a leader of the march on Washington, automobile thief clergy that have pleaded guilty for bootlegging whiskey in the U. S. District Court. Some other ministers have pleaded guilty for molesting 13 year old girls while others have been indicted for stealing civil rights money. I could go on and on but because of the lack of space we will conclude by saying that Dr. King is a fraud and phonie and anti-Christian. The Negro community have never authorized him to speak in their behalf.

Tell them what army life and the war in Viet Nam are really about. Be determined. The officers will be only too glad to get rid of you.

3. Refuse to sign the loyalty oath and don't mark the red list. If you do, they will arrest you. They'll investigate you and if you have been fairly active in any of the "subversive campus movements, they won't want you.

Play Homosexual Bit

4. Be "gay." Play the homosexual bit. Mark "yes" or don't mark the "homosexual tendencies" line on forms. Psychiatrists may give you the run around, but stick with it. If you are really game, be obviously one of the "gay" boys. Besides flicking your wrist, move your body like chicks do. Hold cigaret delicately, talk melodically, act embarrassed in front of the other guys when you undress.

5. Note from doctor. If you have a "friendly" family doctor or can buy one, you'll find he's extremely handy. Get a signed note from him attesting to an allergy, a trick knee or elbow or shoulder or back trouble or asthma. Don't don't forget to mark appropriate places on induction forms and you've got it made. Without a doctor's note, you'll have to a pretty good job of faking these things. Certain chemicals will temporarily induce allergies-see your chemist.

6. Be an epileptic. Borrow the standard epileptic medal from a friend and wear it. Mark the form properly, tell the doctor and you are in good shape. If you want to have some fun, read about and fake a seizure. It's fun and you'll really give them a headache.

7. Jail record. Most of us aren't lucky enough to have a felony record, but if you got one-use it. You'll see signs all over the place telling you what a crime you'll be committing if you do not tell them (them of course meaning military authorities. Chew Your Fingernail

8. Play psycho. If you've ever been to a "head shrinker"-even once-by all means mark so on forms. A note from them and a little bit of acting with this will go a long way. Chew your fingernails. Talk about the Viet Cong being out to get you. Tell them you're-a secret agent for God Johnson. Or be sincere and tell the doctor how much you enjoy walking on the Golden Gate bridge (in San Francisco, a frequent location for suicides). Use your imagination, have a ball, and you'll blow their lines without having your's blown up.

9. Arrive drunk. Being late here really helps. They may send you away to come back another day when it will look good to have it on your record. If you do this enough times, they will probably run you back to the head shrinker to find out why. Then play it cool (the booze will help) and you've got it made.

10. Arrive high. They'll smell it and you won't have to admit it. If you want to go about the addiction scene in a really big way, use a common pin on your arm for a few weeks in advance.

Be Undersirable

11. Be an undersirable. Go for a couple of weeks without a shower. Really look dirty. Stink, Long hair helps. Go in barefoot with your sandals tied around your neck. Give a wino a bottle for his clothes and wear them. For extra kicks, talk far-out. One doctor is probably all you'll have to see, and he will be only too happy to get you out of the place.

12. Be a foul-up. Don't do anything right. Forget instructions, don't follow orders and generally do just about everything wrong. Apologize profusely for your mistakes and they'll probably tell you how sorry they are for having to give you a

CHRISTIANITY
OR ATHEIST BEATLEISM

"As goes the Church, So Goes The Nation."
"No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon."
St. Matthew 6:24.

John Lennon- one of the BEATLES - expressed a DEVASTATING DANGER. Reportedly he said - "We are now more popular than Jesus Christ. Christianity will go. It will vanish and shrink. Jesus was all right, but His disciples were thick and ordinary." Later, reporter Maureen Cleave watered this down. Lennon - was simply observing - that, "so weak is the state of christianity, that the BEATLES are to many people, better known than Jesus Christ." Reportedly - Lennon is the author of a book - blaspheming Jesus and Christianity.

Today - most of the world's people - seem to be atheist BEATLES. Let us just take a look at Lennon's England - and our, beloved America.

England - within the lifetime of this writer - was a largely, Christian- believing nation - and ruled the seas of the world. Today - from published reports - it has become one of the most immoral peoples in the world. Politically, economically, morally and religiously - England is a bankrupt - HAS-BEEN NATION.

Look at our beloved America today, Most of our people - in the last half century - have ALSO forgotten man's ONLY Great-Giver of ALL blessings - our God-Who created the Heavens and earth - Who sacrificed His Son, Jesus, for our sins- Who gave America and our freedoms to us. America is teetering on the verge of the SAME BANKRUPTCY politically, Constitutionally, economically, morally and Religiously.

Reading all these things in the Papers. Why I think it is a disgrace that that Carmichael can roam here & there like a devil starting riots. When they put him in jail why dont they throw the key away & a few others ought to go to jail with him. They should get down on their knees & thank God there in America. Had anything to do with Carmichael he would be put in the Army so fast it wouldn't be funny when I got done with him. And put him with all the white soldiers. So he wouldn't be able to put a lot of bitterness in his own race mind. There isn't going to be work for everybody ~~but not~~. There never was & never will be. The machines are putting people out of work. And there as many poor white folks out of work as the Colored Race. The Municipal Bldg & the City Hall the place is crawling with them. Who working in there but the Colored people. I bet you can hardly find a white person in the building. I think that Carmichael is getting away with too much & he ought to be stop. If our white people ever get any back bone to stop him. The World has enough trouble in it. Without him roaming around. Send him to Viet Nam where he belongs. I think yrs ago when everybody could lived where they wanted there was more peace. Not to tell you who you should have for your neighbor & not have. I say there plenty of space for everyone. Build more homes & let them go & lived among there own race. Did you read what this devil got in the Paper. If it were a white boy. Sure go to jail & stay there. Let Carmichael in jail. Keep him there. might bring him down to his size.

King Links Race Hatred To Low Income Whites

Washington, Aug. 22—(AP)—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., says lower income groups are the principal source among Northern whites of a "massive outpouring of hatred" against Negroes.

King said these whites "have grown up believing in certain stereotypes, whether it is the stereotype of the Negroes as lazy, or inherently inferior, or whether it is the myth that Negroes depreciate property values when they move into a community."

King appeared yesterday with five other Negroes prominent in civil rights affairs on a special "Meet the Press," program on NBC radio and television.

He took part in the program from a Chicago television studio, leaving before it ended to lead another open-housing march in Chicago. The other panelists were in a Washington studio.

'Latent Hostilities'

The Chicago demonstrations, King said, have brought into the open "many latent hostilities already existing within certain white groups in the North."

Asked whether perhaps the majority of white people in the nation don't want a Negro for a neighbor, the rights leader agreed there are some whites against open housing. But he added that "this does not mean that we don't go all out to end housing discrimination."

He said that in the south, whites opposed integrating lunch counters and motels but that this did not prevent passage of civil rights legislation to bar segregation. "The same thing must happen in housing," he said.

"When the law makes it clear, and is vigorously enforced, we will see that people will not only adjust but . . . attitudes will also change."

Others on the program included James H. Meredith, who became the first known Negro at the University of Mississippi and was shot from ambush on a voter registration drive in Mississippi last June.

Vigilantes Proposed

During questioning, Meredith advocated organizing vigilante groups to hunt down untried killers of Negroes. Asked if he meant that Negroes should "take the law into their own hands," Meredith replied: "That's exactly what I'm saying."

"Nonviolence is incompatible with American ideas," he added. "This is a military-minded nation."

Meredith said Negroes "cannot continue to tolerate this. If the law doesn't take these men then we got to stop this."

Later he said, however, that "the Negro has never entertained the idea of taking up arms against (all) the whites."

The other panelists were Stokely Carmichael, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee; Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Floyd B. McKissick, director of the Congress of Racial Equality, and Whitney M. Young, Jr., executive director of the National Urban League.

The six indicated agreement that what King called the "tragic gulf between promise and fulfillment" for Negroes is growing worse at some points. In general, they said, the civil rights movement is not accomplishing enough fast enough.

War Is Attacked

Carmichael again attacked the Viet Nam war, saying Negro soldiers there are black mercenaries.

"A mercenary is a hired killer and I think that when this country says to black youths . . . their only chance to a decent living is when you join the Army . . . it's saying to that black man his only chance to a decent life is to become a hired killer," he said.

"I would not fight in Viet Nam, absolutely not," Carmichael said. "I urge every black man in this country not to fight in Viet Nam."

Wilkins, discussing the future of the civil rights movement, said "progress is being made . . . despite the fact that great masses of people cannot count the difference between today's living and what they had two years ago."

But McKissick disagreed. "Things have not progressed tremendously for the masses of the people," he said. There has been some progress for some Negroes, he added, but "the average black man in the ghetto has not profited within the last 10 years."

Black Power Defined

McKissick also defined "black power" in terms of six ingredients: "One, political power. Two, economic power. Three, an improved self-image of the black man himself. Four, the development of young militant leadership. Five, the enforcement of federal laws, abolition of police brutality. Six, the development of a black consumer bloc."

Young attacked those employers who say they are willing to hire more Negroes but either none apply or few are qualified. Calling those excuses feeble, he said, "We have in this country in the corporate circles the most creative minds, the most imaginative people. . . . Any type of worker they really want to employ or train, they can do it."

Hon Mayor Allen: You are being applauded by every decent American here in Dallas. You handled the situation perfectly. Perhaps other cities will now do the same

The Trials of Atlanta

UNTIL THIS week, the City of Atlanta had maintained a glowing reputation as one of the hardest-working communities in the building of interracial harmony and progress. Through the efforts and cooperation of whites and Negroes, it established itself as a model of peaceful integration, a model studied by other Southern communities trying to solve their own racial problems.

Then Stokely Carmichael came to town with his inflammatory sales pitch for "black power" and his rantings against "the white devils." And on Tuesday night, Carmichael's loud-speaker campaign came to fruition with the rioting of a mob. This mob attacked the mayor, who tried to reason with its members. It attacked the policemen who tried to restore order. But it did more—it attacked the concept Atlanta has represented, the concept that real compromise and cooperation can achieve a spirit in which all races can work together to build a better city.

THIS WAS perhaps the greatest damage that the mob did. Now other city fathers may be tempted to shrug their shoulders and say: "What's the use? Atlanta has done as much as any city in the South to make cooperative integration work, and look what happened."

Dallas citizens in particular may be discouraged by Atlanta's experience, for the two cities are very much alike in their populations, in their economies and in their attempts to build through interracial cooperation.

But before we decide to abandon the path that Dallas and Atlanta have tried to follow, it would serve us well to look deeper into the events of the current week. There is more to the story than the headlined activities of Carmichael's SNCC barnstormers or of the hundreds of young rioters.

We should note that there were Negro as well as white leaders who tried, at the risk of their safety, to quell the violence. There were Negro as well as white policemen who skillfully restored order before the riot turned into a bloodbath.

And, perhaps most important, the Negro Atlantans, local civil-rights leaders and ministers, were the ones who organized a door-to-door campaign the following day to counter Carmichael's efforts to turn the city into a battleground.

IN SHORT, in Atlanta, there is a durable fabric of society, a fabric that has been woven of both white and black threads through the years of cooperation. The efforts of these years have not been as dramatic or as well-publicized as the riot, but in the final analysis they should prove to be more lasting in their results.

These results of the work of men of good will will not be destroyed overnight by men of Carmichael's stripe. Rational Atlantans of both races cannot stand by and see their community torn asunder, because those of both races know that they have a stake in its future.

The Rev. Samuel Williams, president of the Atlanta chapter of the NAACP, summed it up most succinctly when he declared:

"Atlanta is not by far a perfect city but it is too great to be destroyed by simpleminded bigotry."

Dear Mr Allen, First I wish to congratulate you on your outspoken stand against the Negro uprising. It is due time the white man takes action to stop this, also spending tax money to protect them while rioting + looting, as this is what it leads up to, I am sure we whites here could not stone our police officers, and holler brutality. I am in favor of officers using any reasonable means for their protection.

Now dont misjudge me as anyone advocating violence, for from it, there are some few, honorable and educated Negroes in our midst but I would say 90% are not ready or would honestly hold the positions they seek.

So you may not judge me as some trouble monger, I will say I will be 79 yrs old this Dec, I go to church & pray each night & try to follow the teachings of Christ so I hope I am not doing a sin in taking this stand but I honestly believe we will in the near future face another civil war if this so called "Black Power" is not taken care of right now.

SNICK Goal: Destruction Of Society

Riots Expose Stokely Carmichael
And His Organization Of Anarchists

By John S. Knight

JOHN S. KNIGHT

The recent riots in Atlanta offer convincing evidence that most, if not all, of the racial violence in our large cities has been organized and led by a small minority bent upon the destruction of our society.

My authority for this statement is Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, and long a moving and militant force for equal treatment of the Negro citizen as provided by law and the Constitution of the United States.

McGill places responsibility for the Atlanta disturbance squarely upon the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. (SNICK) and its leader Stokely Carmichael. SNICK, according to McGill has no more than 300 members. These have been the agents of anarchy in Watts, New York, Chicago, Cleveland and other major cities.

SNICK'S beginnings were more auspicious. Its early fruits of a compatible society in which there is mutuality of purpose and respect for all.

The Proud Father

This nation will not, however, permit the destroyers of society—the Carmichaels and his ranting radicals to tear down what we have built, to burn and destroy, to defy law and order with rocks and Molotov cocktails or to hurl anarchistic slogans and imprecations at our public officials.

The Ribicoffs and the Kennedys who continue to deplore "our tragic conditions" from comfortable seats in the U. S. Senate should visit riot areas and seek to quiet the mob, as did Mayor Allen.

If nothing else, the experience might leave them better informed and not quite so sure that all social ills can be cured by dispensing a few hundred more millions from Washington.

SNICK'S beginnings were more auspicious. Its early student leaders were motivated by high dedication to the civil rights cause. Now the John Lewises and other responsables are out. Control of SNICK is held by the extreme radicals, of which Carmichael is the dominant figure.

As McGill says, SNICK is no longer a civil rights organization but an anarchistic group which is openly and officially committed to the destruction of existing institutions.

Though small in membership, SNICK appeals to all haters of the white man. Its slogans of defiance intrigue the very young as was shown in Atlanta where the mob was largely composed of youngsters in the 12 to 18 age range.

There appears to be no question but that SNICK's funds are supplied from abroad. One of its lawyers is a registered Castro agent. Its agitators shout Havana slogans to the effect that we must live through violence. "Black Power" is but the rallying cry.

Mayor Of Courage

Fortunately for Atlanta, it has a mayor who confronted the mob with rare courage. Though physically manhandled and taunted with shouts of "white devil," Mayor Ivan Allen, Jr., remained upon the scene until the crowd had been dispersed.

Mayor Allen gave short shrift to charges of police brutality. "I saw plenty of brutality," he said, "but it was all directed against police officers." At his press conference, Mayor Allen stated that "If Stokely Carmichael is looking for a battleground, he has created one, and he will be met in whatever situation he chooses."

Atlanta's Negro community leaders were quick to decry the rioting and violence. The Atlanta Summit Leadership Conference, a Negro organization, denounced both SNICK and Carmichael, while calling for constructive measures designed to alleviate problems which directly concern the Negro.

Dr. Martin Luther King, executive director Roy Wilkins of the NAACP and Whitney Young who heads the Urban League have all repudiated Stokely Carmichael and his tactics.

A Useful Service

The city of Atlanta has long enjoyed an enviable reputation for racial amity. Ironically, it was Atlanta's splendid image that the destroyers sought to tarnish.

And yet, unwittingly, Stokely Carmichael and his followers performed a useful service not only for Atlanta but for the entire nation.

For here was stripped away the myth that Negroes are always incited to riot over poor living conditions, lack of employment and denial of civil rights.

Mr. Carmichael has now revealed himself for what he is — a scheming fomenter of disorder, a mad dog who attacks all whites indiscriminately, a revolutionist who seeks to burn and destroy, a terrorist who defies law and spits upon our flag.

Problems Are Many

The right to peaceable assembly is guaranteed by the Bill of Rights, as is the freedom to demonstrate and to seek redress of grievances.

Together and in a spirit of constructive cooperation, the Negro and white communities must find solutions and answers to the problems which beset our cities. For they are both numerous and difficult.

A major start has been made in many areas. Where failures have occurred, the Negro is usually as much at fault as his white brother. Suspicious, distrust and fear of association have worked against the Negroes' best interests.

But the effort must go ahead if we are to enjoy the

YOU NEED A BLUEPRINT Readie Hester Cornell Wedding Bells At They Can Ring Su

By THOMAS COLLINS

Here's a blueprint for marriage after you're 65 years old.

Don't laugh now—the U.S. Government reports that more than 35,000 couples past the 65 are now marrying every year, and the number is growing.

Five years ago many of these people had spouses, sitting on the sofa next to them as your spouse may be sitting now.

The blueprint comes from John Y. Watson, 68, a widower for four years, and his bride of five months, Eugenia Watson, 66, a widow for five years.

Both owned homes at the time of their marriage. Both have now sold them. They live in a trailer parked in a tree-shrouded park in the Southland.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson obviously are happy. But they aren't silly about it. They have a quiet, pleasant, companionable marriage. Not a cute one.

Out of their experience together they have formulated the following points which they believe will make a good retirement marriage:

1. The older couple must understand that their marriage is not a Something-Borrowed — Something-Blue affair. It is a companionship, which means both parties should have somebody to talk to and the security a close companion gives you, and it is for economy. "Together, we are living for about 60 per cent of what the two of us spent living separately," according to Mr. Watson.
2. The older couple should have a wedding ceremony and invite all their friends. Not to solicit gifts, not for their own vanity. But for the friends. Who will love it. And who will ring the bells here on with parties and

3. The older couple should go to their individual doctors, make their plans, and get a check on their physical condition. They should tell each other what they can do. That a case of arthritis or some midnight won't come

4. The older couple should discuss their plans carefully, but firmly, each might have. "You must tell them," says Mrs. Watson.

"You must tell them if it is dishonorable in older age. There's nothing dishonorable in children's deceased Mother people want companion. It is necessary to point out whether the remarriage is unwise to get into. This is your decision, re

6. This reassurance given through a firm agreement which any older couple should work out, either through an exchange of each other.

Jailed Stokely Wins Backing Of Slum Group

Atlanta, Sept. 10 (UPI)—Black Power leader Stokely Carmichael relaxed in jail today reading a copy of "Kidnaped," and picked up support from an organization in a slum area which officials feared was ripe for riot.

The organization, the Vine City Council, charged that neither Carmichael nor his Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee

Stokely Carmichael
Suit asks his freedom was responsible for Tuesday's Negro riot in a slum called Summerhill.

Carmichael was jailed on a charge of inciting a riot. He refused to post $10,000 bond and said he would remain in jail as a "political prisoner."

Asks Charges Be Dropped

Attorney Howard Moore has filed a federal suit seeking to have the charges against Carmichael dropped.

The Vine City Council said it has received "reliable information that all the disturbances and riots are politically inspired."

The council said if there is a riot in Vine City, a 6,000-acre slum, "it will be caused by people who have turned their backs on communities like Vine City, not by SNCC or Carmichael.

Council's Plea to Mayor

The council urged Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. to stop condemning SNCC and point the blame at "responsible persons who have turned their backs for so long."

Moore said Carmichael was taking it easy in Fulton County Jail reading Robert Louis Stevenson's "Kidnaped," and several publications about black Africa.

'Black Power' Term Hit by Negro Baptists

Dallas, Sept. 10 (UPI)—The National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., the country's largest Negro organization, said today it has condemned the term "black power" as a civil rights weapon.

The 5.5 million member organization adopted a resolution at its 86th annual convention which said "black power" is "the other side of the old coin of segregation."

The organization, headed by Dr. J. H. Jackson of Chicago, said, "in civil order . . . civil disobedience is not required," and "we decry and lament the recent riots that have destroyed millions of dollars worth of property . . . values . . . and life itself."

Congressman James D. Martin of Alabama has inserted in the Congressional Record an interesting column written by Don MacLean of the Washington Daily News on a timely subject. It is the newspaperman's reaction to President Johnson's pointed warning that riots might erupt in Washington if Congress doesn't approve the President's plan to provide political home rule for the District of Columbia.

Mr. MacLean wrote:

By now, the President doesn't need the likes of me to tell him how poorly conceived were his remarks about the possibility of a riot here. The editorialists and, I'm sure, his advisers, have already done that. My personal view is that what the President said was the greatest flame-fanning act since Nero and his fiddle at Rome. What I want to do today is (1) tell the President what it is like to live in the mouth of a cannon and (2) thank him for making it more likely that some nut will pull the trigger.

I live about 30 blocks from the White House, in a neighborhood called Mount Pleasant. (In contrast to many of L. B. J.'s leading liberals, who live safely tucked away in Maryland or Virginia.) There's no ghetto of any kind in Mount Pleasant, not even a white one. I have never had anything but the friendliest relations with my neighbors, be they Negro or white. In short, we are a happy mixture of people who get along just swell. The riots in Los Angeles made all of us nervous, because, in truth, none of us wants any trouble.

HERE'S HOW IT IS

There is a serious rate of violent crime in our area. But it affects everyone equally. The crimes have caused many of us to take precautions. After several attempts were made to break into my house, I surrounded it as best I could with a 6-foot fence. After a girl running from an attacker pounded on my door one night seeking safety, I called the police and the next week bought a gun. I figure that something worse may happen another night, and I want a gun if he has one. My wife suggested watchdogs, and I got two German shepherds.

You don't know it is? Well, on Saturday night in Mount Pleasant, it is worth your life to walk to the store. An elderly man was killed for $2 in the bright sunlight, while washing his car. A man was shot out by my mailbox. Many a night we've watched from a second floor window as gangs of men have battled in the alley with boards and pipes. Ever hear the "thunk" a pipe makes when it hits a human head? The sound carries quite a distance. What is it

King Gets Shunting

By CHARLES M. HILLS
Clarion-Ledger Staff Writer

U. S. Sen. James O. Eastland appearing at the Neshoba County Fair here a few days ago, told a large audience that the Negro leader, Martin Luther King, "has not gone over in the North and they are shunting him back South."

The statement came on the heels of announcements that King is bringing his annual convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference to Jackson, Aug. 7 - 8.

Sen. Eastland, considered the leading anti-liberal in the Congress, cautioned the citizens of this area to pay as little attention to the rabble-rousings of King as possible.

It has been noted that everywhere that the "non-violent" King goes up north, death and destruction have sprouted.

Sen. Eastland told the Neshoba audience that even liberal solons in Washington "saw through" the shooting incident of James Meredith several weeks ago, and the result was a break-through for the conservative cause.

"The man with the rifle, an expert marksman according to his military record, called three times for attention of Meredith in order that the cameramen could focus," Eastland noted, "Yes, the North even saw through that, when an expert marksman used birdshot to 'kill.'"

So much for the Eastland statement . . . we are attracted to the New York Times via the St. Louis Post Dispatch this week.

GIFTS CUT

The Post Dispatch, quoting the New York paper, reprints the following which should show a turn of affairs up North . . .

The Northern Liberals, fearful of extremism, are cutting back sharply on contributions to the more militant civil rights organizations.

The big drop in donations from the liberal community is verified by top officers and former leaders of the Congress of Racial Equality, the Student nonviolent co-ordinating committee, popularly called Snick, and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Money from white persons in the past has been the lifeblood of their campaigns.

In a series of interviews, officers of those organizations and civil rights donors gave three that contributions fell significantly after a CORE officer at Mount Vernon, N. Y., denounced Jews in general at a public meeting in February.

Lynch says that about 80 per cent of his group's financial support has come from the white community "and you could say that Jewish contributions have been predominant."

RESIGNATIONS

Former high-ranking national officers of CORE recently resigned but still in close touch with the situation, say that contributions to it this year are running only little better than half of the $810,000 total of the previous fiscal year.

Lynch denies such a severe drop but does not disclose the figures. He concedes that the deficit is between $200,000 and $250,000. Former CORE leaders put it as high as $350,000.

Ivanhoe Donaldson, new director of the New York office of Snick, which operates primarily in the South but has frankly depended on white northern financial help, says "our contributions are 40 to 45 per cent less than we normally have at this time of year."

He says that the Student Committee is no longer supported "by those liberal whites who believe in integration in the South but not New York or Chicago."

Today the organization has the help of the radicals, he says.

The Student Committee talks of about $650,000 in income in the fiscal year 1965.

The Student Committee charges the Northern press with distortions about the meaning of "black power," causing liberals to worry about "racism" and "black nationalism."

The Rev. Dr. King's conference says that 70 per cent of its financial help has come from white liberals but that contributions dropped from $1,500,000 in the fiscal year 1965 to less than $1,000,000 in 1966.

There are indications that much money from whites is being shifted from CORE and Snick to more conservative rights groups or to educational and legal defense organizations benefiting the Negro.

SLACKENING INTEREST

Civil Rights leaders and donors report a general slackening in Northern interest after the enactment of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and last year's voting rights law.

A long-time CORE national executive, who wants his name withheld, sums up that atti-snow a turn of affairs up North . . .

The Northern Liberals, fearful of extremism, are cutting back sharply on contributions to the more militant civil rights organizations.

The big drop in donations from the liberal community is verified by top officers and former leaders of the Congress of Racial Equality, the Student nonviolent co-ordinating committee, popularly called Snick, and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Money from white persons in the past has been the lifeblood of their campaigns.

In a series of interviews, officers of those organizations and civil rights donors gave three main reasons for the drop in financial support:

(1) Concern over CORE and Snick attitudes that are described by many persons as "black racist," anti-Semitic or "extreme."

(2) Worry or disgust about bitter attacks, primarily by CORE and Snick, on United States intentions and on "morality" in Viet Nam and on the military draft.

(3) A decline of enthusiasm now that the Northerner is being jostled by civil rights militancy in his own backyard.

BLACK POWER

Both CORE and the Student Committee have recently emphasized demands for "black power" in political and economic life. The Rev. Dr. King demands a "militant thrust forward" by Negroes but deplores use of the term "black power" as implying black nationalist ideas. His organization reports contributions down by more than one third in the fiscal year ending, June 30.

The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, vice president and treasurer of the Leadership Conference, says that "black power" demands and allegedly racist attitudes of CORE and Snick have seriously affected the King organization because many whites do not differentiate among the organizations.

Lincoln Lynch, associate national director of CORE, says

ence says that 70 per cent of its financial help has come from white liberals but that contributions dropped from $1,500,000 in the fiscal year 1965 to less than $1,000,000 in 1966.

SLACKENING INTEREST

Civil Rights leaders and donors report a general slackening in Northern interest after the enactment of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and last year's voting rights law.

A long-time CORE national executive, who wants his name withheld, sums up that attitude: "Bull Connor and his police dogs were such easy targets to hate a few years ago."

He referred to Eugene Connor, who used dogs to check demonstrators when he was Birmingham police commissioner.

Many observers and leaders of the civil rights struggle believe that it is too early to assess the full impact of the new "black power" slogan. But they point to other related factors, described as "racist" or "extremist," attitudes as having a depressing effect for many months.

Kivie Kaplan, the retired white industrialist who is president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said recently: "I know one big contributor who tore up his check when Snick started that 'Black Panther' political party in Alabama."

He referred to a new all-black party in one Alabama county.

Another, Joseph Willen, executive director of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, has switched his support to the National Urban League and to the scholarship, education and defense fund for racial equality, set up friends and staff people of CORE in 1962, but separate in operation.

CORE, he says, has apparently decided not to be an interracial group any longer, "and the opposite of that is racist." He speaks of a Negro attack "on their neighbors, the Jews."
