On November 7, at 2:00 P. M., Mr. Vogelsang, Executive Director of the Metropolitan Planning Commission in Indianapolis and several members of his Commission are going to be with us for the purpose of talking about organizations for metropolitan planning.

They now represent an agency which is composed of the City and the County, and are getting ready to expand to include several counties. The Chairman is Mr. Charles Whistler, who is an Indiana lawyer. He and five other members of the Planning Commission will be present.

We will meet in our Conference Room at 2:00 o'clock for an hour or more. I hope you can attend.
