Dear Mr. Neagu:

Mayor Ivan Allen has asked that I respond to your letter requesting information on Atlanta's Urban Coalition. I am sending you information which should answer your first two questions.

To be perfectly truthful, we have not formalized the Coalition beyond these initial steps. This is basically because the City of Atlanta has operated for years with an informal, unstructured coalition of government, business and civil rights groups. There are moves underway now to extend the Coalition beyond the original organization, but nothing is definite at this point.

Sincerely yours,

Dan Sweat
