Dear Mayor Allen

I would like to add another note to what I feel sure is a flood of supporting letters.

I have returned to this country from two years in England and have just moved to Atlanta. What has struck me adversely in comparison of attitudes of the two countries is the attitude in America of not being involved.

On Tuesday you demonstrated that you were involved and from this, I think,

has come forward respectable Negroes and whites who are also willing to be involved and not hide behind the rhetoric of poverty or race psychics in allowing the extremist to succeed in anarchy.

It is you and this attitude which makes Atlanta unique and I am happy I have moved here.

Yours,
Paul W. Singer
