Dear Mr. Bray:

There are a lot of people in the real estate business. They want to make sales, but they don't give service.

My reason for dropping you this note is to tell you how much I appreciate the hard work over a long period that you did to bring about many complicated situations that eventually consummated a very satisfactory trade on a large tract of land that I owned in Cobb County.

I am writing you this with the idea it is better to send flowers while you are living.

Sincerely your friend,

Ivan Allen
