Honorable Ivan Allen, Jr.,
Mayor of Atlanta,
City Hall,
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Mayor Allen:

This letter is being written on a wholly non-political basis as I am firmly opposed to a number of your policies and actions and, for that reason, moved out of the City of Atlanta.

I must, however, congratulate you for the stand and actions you took last night in connection with the "riots". Your intestinal fortitude and convictions, under the circumstances, were wholly admirable. You are probably the only Mayor of a large city who took such direct and responsible action and did not take refuge in his office. Congratulations!!

Cordially,

WALTER G. MEYER
