ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Friday PM, July 26, 1963

Dear Mayor:

I wish to express my hearty approval of your stand before the Senatorial Committee in Washington as reported in this afternoon's Journal.

I think it took courage to adopt the course you did in face of the fact that all our representatives in government affairs took the opposite stand.

Some adjustments can be made in the proposed law that will do no injustice to any one concerned, but this note is principally to felicitate you on what we call intestinal fortitude to stand up for your convictions.

Meanwhile, I hope you be as active in supporting the present administration and the reelection of the President.

Sincerely,

Mayor Ivan Allen Jr.,
Atlanta
