

Doraville, Ga.

Oct. 1st 1966.

Mayor Ivan Allen-

Sir:

I for one, believe you and others should be careful of the statements you are making about Lester Maddox, trying to mislead the people of Ga. The people of Ga. are not stupid nor ignorant. We know, if Mr. Maddox wasn't qualified for governor of Ga. he couldn't have been in the race. He was the only man in the race, that included God. So - you see - God was in this election. God used, what many of you thought, was weak, over, what many of thought was the mighty, and strong. There is not any thing impossible with God -

Praise His name!!

Lester Maddox is a fine upright, truthful Christian man. He believes in freedom, liberty, and justice for all people. God is his partner, and he will make Ga. the best governor we've had in a long time. He will not shirk his duty. We truly need men like him for leadership in times like these.

Respt.

Mr. G. P. Taylor
