Amendment note—Ord. No. 1966-46, § 2, enacted June 20, 1966, and effective December 31, 1966, amended § 2-39 to add the provisions codified herein as subsection (b).

Cross references—Duty to grant permits to places selling sandwiches, soft drinks, §§ 17-159, 17-160; duty to formulate rules and regulations for police department, § 25-1(a); duty to pass on permits and licenses, § 25-1(b).

Sec. 2-40. Special duty of finance committee relative to annual tax ordinance.

In addition to the powers, duties and authority set forth in sections 2-29 and 2-31, the finance committee shall prepare and report to the mayor and board of aldermen the annual tax ordinance. (Code 1953, § 28.12)

Cross references—Duty of building and electric lights committee to supervise department of building inspector, § 8-3; power of tax committee to cancel business license penalties and fi. fa. costs, § 17-24; petitions for license to peddle articles not enumerated in annual tax ordinance to be referred to finance committee, § 17-323.

Sec. 2-40.1. Planning and development committee.

(a) Creation. A committee of the board of aldermen is hereby created to be entitled the planning and development committee.

(b) Membershsip. The planning and development committee shall be composed of six members and a chairman (total of seven) to be appointed by the mayor. The mayor shall appoint the planning and development committee so that a representation is obtained of aldermanic committees concerned with community development, redevelopment and improvements.

(c) Functions, responsibilities. This planning and development committee shall have the primary responsibility to review and coordinate the long range plans and programs of all city efforts in the fields of community development, redevelopment, facilities and improvements, and to make suggestions to other appropriate aldermanic committees or recommend actions and policies for adoption by the board of aldermen to insure maximum coordination and the highest quality of urban community development. This responsibility shall include the review and evaluation of the elements of the comprehensive (general) plan development by the planning department with guidance from the Atlanta-Fulton County Joint Planning Board; this comprehensive plan to be composed of at least a land-use plan, a major thoroughfare plan and a community facilities plan with public improvements program. The committee shall further be responsible for developing policy recommendations on all other matters concerning the planning and coordination of future city developments including, specifically, the community improvements program (CIP), the 1962 Federal Highway Act, the workable program for community improvement, urban renewal preliminary and project plans, and other related urban renewal matters. (Ord. of 12-21-64)

Editor's note—Ord. of Dec. 21, 1964, from which § 2-40.1 is derived, did not expressly amend this Code, hence the manner of codification was at the discretion of the editors. That part of said ordinance abolishing the urban renewal committee and providing for transfer of its functions and activities to the planning and development committee, has not been codified as part of this section.

Sec. 2-40.2. Urban renewal policy committee; membership.

There is hereby established a standing committee of the board of aldermen to be known as the urban renewal policy committee, to consist of five (5) members of the board of aldermen, to be appointed by the mayor, including the chairman, the vice-chairman and one other regular member of the planning and development committee, and two members to be appointed by the chairman of the Housing Authority of the city. (Ord. of 1-18-65)

Editor's note—Ord. of Jan. 18, 1965 did not expressly amend this Code, hence the manner of codification was at the discretion of the editors. The preamble to said ordinance recited the fact that said committee, pursuant to resolution, is coordinating urban renewal activities and programs between the city and its urban renewal agent, the housing authority.

Sec. 2-41. Duties of zoning committee.

The duties of the zoning committee shall be to hold any public hearing required to be held by the provisions of the Zoning and Planning Act of the General Assembly of Georgia approved January 31, 1946, and contained in Georgia Laws
