

4 Stabbed in Racial Melee at Fair Here *

Four white youths were stabbed during a melee with a "large group of Negroes" at the Southeastern Fair during the weekend.

The fighting was only part of inter-racial troubles that began erupting Saturday night. After the fair closed down for the night. Bumper-to-bumper traffic leaving Lakewood Park along Pryor Road SW was bombarded with rocks and bottles hurled from the sidewalks.

Detective L. F. Peaden said he was told by several persons at the fair that the group of Negroes there had grabbed at passing white women and made vulgar remarks.

He said the four stabbed white youths told him they and their friends and dates were attacked twice by the band of Negroes.

Following the knifings police caught one Negro youth identified as a member of the group. He is Ray Stephens, 19, of 7 Troop St. SE, jailed under an assault charge.

Cut during the melee were James A. Hardy, 20, of 1345 Heatherland Drive. Harry R. Glass, 23, of 1745 Gillren St. SW, Danny Hoggerup, 20, of 1762 Shirley Place SW, and David F. Stewart, 19, of 1935 McAfee St. Northwest.

Peaden said he still had the matter under investigation.

Capt. R. E. Little said there had been numerous reports Saturday night of cars being peppered from sidewalks in Negro neighborhoods along Pryor Street during the worst of the traffic trying to leave the park.

Allen Pledges to Help Negroes Get Met Tickets

Atlanta Mayor Ivan Allen has pledged his support to Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr. in making tickets to the Metropolitan Opera Company's performances here next spring available to Negroes.

Mrs. King, representing the inter-racial Atlanta Committee for Cultural Opportunity, had sent a lengthy telegram to Mayor Allen to "call attention to some serious problems concerning the Metropolitan Opera Company's annual season in the city."

Allen replied by telegram, in which he said he is "thoroughly sympathetic with your desire to provide additional seats at Metropolitan Opera for the Negro citizens of Atlanta. It is my understanding that the additional 500 to 600 seats in the new auditorium will be distributed on an absolutely fair and equitable basis and every consideration given to Negro applicants. I will support your position and sincerely hope that it will be completely carried out by the Opera Association."

Mrs. King said Negroes were excluded from getting season tickets because white holders renew their seats year after year and there is a long waiting list.

"We are determined," she said, "not to submit again to the existing discriminatory practices of that association, regardless of where the Metropolitan Opera performs. We are confident that many of the Metropolitan Opera's artists will join us if necessary."

More action is

With further regard our five messages re independent spacecraft and million-member international ground support ring for several spacecraft still up globally and manned by criminals, first of six rockets from space at local (Georgia) targets planned as practice for first 20-megaton Atomic missile was fired at approximately 2:00 PM, Tuesday, 12 Sept 1967 at a target within limits of City of Atlanta and was a direct hit, causing fire, despite fact that The Atlanta Journal and Constitution have so many ring members and they did not report event. Craft will continue with five more rockets, including one at State Concentration Camp, as convenient. Also, as there was another physical attempt on my life by intruder on property on 13 Sept 1967 after midnight, I must warn you again that if I die from new attack by either domestic or foreign persons, independent craft will immediately fire rockets at both Governor's mansion and City Hall in order that persons there will not be able to flee before slight delay in setting up Atomic shot for Atlanta rather than northward. We have indicated before that we broke membership identification code of million-member ground ring as to principles, and I will again repeat that we will welcome assistance from any person, American, Russian or other, who reconsiders before Atomic shot is made...assistance in naming more ring members, in getting a good actor with good memory into ring, or any other practical help. We would especially like a Spanish language expert. Code is not based on past accepted ideas of cryptography, is so complex it has confused many "small-fry" members but really requires only WORK when principles are known. Its system actually includes names of those designated to murder or damage

U.S. Signs 85 Negroes As Voters

Constitution Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—Federal registrars sent to oversee Negro voter registration in three Georgia counties Monday listed only 85 persons during their first day of operation, it was reported.

A spokesman for the U.S. Civil Service Commission, which administers the operation, said only 84 voters were signed up in Screven County, one in Terrell and none in Lee.

By contrast, three Shreveport, La., registration offices also under their first day of federal supervision Monday showed listings of 49, 81 and 193 voters respectively, the CSC said.

Spokesmen here said they supposed the Georgia totals were low because many eligible voters were not yet aware of the opportunities provided through longer registration hours.

The registrars, the first sent to Georgia counties under the 1965 Voting Rights Act, were assigned after the Justice department announced it had received complaints of discrimination.

The federal supervisors are stationed in Dawson, Leesburg and Sylvania. No indication has been given as to how long they will remain there.

Recent voter registration drives conducted by the Southern regional council resulted in 49 new voters in Terrell County and another 177 in Lee.

Daily totals are not made available until the following day.

City Hires 1,501 with 733 Negroes

The city hired 1,501 persons during the first quarter of 1967. About half were Negroes.

Negro-white employment was 733-768 for all jobs, the city personnel department said Wednesday.

The breakdown of higher-than-menial labor was 168 Negro and 688 white persons.

The city's work force is now about one-third Negro, Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. said.

The personnel report shows 148 white firemen and 45 Negro firemen hired this year. There were 58 white and six Negro policemen hired.

Allen said the city had about 20 per cent Negro employes 10 years ago and has continued to increase the ratio.

The white-Negro hirings—exclusive of laborers—in 1964 were 1,054-402. The 1965 totals were 1,209-455 and for 1966, were 1,982-815.

Experts to Review Housing Bias Here

The Georgia State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission will hold a two-day open meeting on discrimination in public and private housing in the Greater Atlanta Metropolitan Areas beginning Friday.

Dr. Vivian W. Henderson, president of Clark College and chairman of the state advisory committee, announced that the group will collect information on alleged discrimination and its effects on school desegregation and community tensions, and examine ways in which the state, federal and local governments and private organizations can combat housing discrimination.

Atlanta Mayor Ivan Allen will welcome the group at 1 p.m. Directors of the Atlanta, DeKalb and Atlanta Metropolitan Area Planning commissions have been invited to appear Friday. Also invited are Housing Authority officials from cities in the metropolitan area, the Fulton County Welfare director, the regional director of the Federal Housing Assistance Administration and the vice chairman of the Georgia Council on Human Relations. The session is to conclude at 6 p.m.

Officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, American Friends Service Committee and National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing will appear Saturday, with representatives of the mortgage banking, real estate and home building industries.

The two-day meeting will be in the federal district courtroom on the third floor of the Old Post Office building on Forsyth St. NW.

The Georgia committee is one of 51 national groups whose members serve without compensation to inform the commission of civil rights matters in their communities and to disseminate information about federal laws and programs.

N.Y. Urban Interns to Study Here

Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York will send a counterpart of his Cornerstone Project to Atlanta this summer, city officials said Thursday.

The program will give a "select group of young leaders the opportunity to live among, work with and learn from the disadvantaged" here.

Lindsay began the program last summer from private contributions and has worked out the outline for the program to come South this summer. Details still are to be decided.

About 20 interns from congressional and federal agency offices will come here for each of four two-week sessions, according to preliminary plans.

The program is designed to be educational and to give the students an idea of what the city and various organizations are doing to cope with the problems arising from urbanization, said Dan Sweat, governmental liaison director at City Hall.

The interns, who will come from colleges all over the nation, will spend a day or two with various established organizations or departments during the day, then hold panel discussions in the evenings.

2 Policemen Shot to Death In Probe of Rob Attempt

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Two West Palm Beach police officers were shot to death Thursday as they answered a trouble call at a federal savings and loan association.

Police Sgt. John Ollis said the officers were shot down by a man who had attempted to enter the closed bank about 5 p.m. by kicking the door.

Witnesses said a suspect who was apprehended by a bystander was taken into custody.

Neither the suspect nor the dead officers were immediately identified.

Richard Coman, an employe in an office adjacent to the bank, said he arrived at the scene just seconds after the man was taken into custody.

He said the policemen arrived at the scene separately, one on a motorcycle, and the other in a squad car.

"The man must have been a dead shot," Coman said. "The motorcycle officer apparently was cut down before he got off his cycle and the other officer was shot as he stepped out of his cruiser."

Two Parties, But No 'System'

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. — Smith College students, struggling to understand the South, ask the ancient question: "When will you have two parties?" To say the question is relative, which it is, or to propose a general answer, which one cannot, is unsatisfactory to them.

They want at least a guess as to when the South is going to organize itself politically like everybody else. The answer may even be never. But if a Southerner were required to risk a generalization, perhaps the most sensible way of getting at it would be this:

Southern Republicans will be wise to offer an alternative; they apparently cannot win a mere me-too campaign against the Southern Democrats.

Winthrop Rockefeller moved to the left of a conservative Democrat and won Arkansas in 1966.

Claude Kirk went to the right of a liberal Democrat and won Florida.

Conservative Republicans tried to fight a me-too campaign against conservative Democrats in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, and lost all three. Georgia almost certainly would have gone Republican as Arkansas did if a Rockefeller-type candidacy had been present to gather in the moderate and Negro vote.

All of which brings up the relative aspect of the thing. Party labels don't really mean as much to the future of the Deep South states as do the principles that are in competition. An increase of segregationist conservatism in a region already surfeited and stifled with it can hardly be called a political service to the South, whether it is the result of one party factionalism or is sanctified with the shibboleth of "two party system." A way out of the past, not a thrust backward into it, is the South's need.

And the Goldwater Republicanism of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia—and to some extent South Carolina—offered an echo of old Democratic practices instead of the choice of something new.

Far from being constructive politically, this right wing challenge merely snuffed out the first glimmerings of moderation among Deep South Democrats and drove them back to the right to defend their old base of racism and reaction.

Then which party will risk the first move toward the middle of the road? Again, it is foolish to generalize: Georgia may be almost as different from Alabama as Florida is from Arkansas.

Yet it would seem reasonable in Georgia at least for the Republicans to lead the way out of the right hand rut and toward the center. The Democrats would undoubtedly follow them toward that higher battleground, since they were trying to move there before the Goldwater debacle chased them back to their old base. The state would benefit greatly by the moderating trend. And a moderate Republicanism, being known nationally as the more conservative philosophy anyway, might retain an advantage with genuine conservatives while freeing itself, as well as the Democratic party, from the destructive business of courting segregationists to the exclusion of moderates and Negroes in the South.

King Says Picketing to Grow Here

Atlanta Negroes' boycott and picketing of a shoe store chain "is going to grow" to include other Atlanta retail merchants, Dr. Martin Luther King Sr. predicted Thursday.

Dr. King was among pickets marching around in front of the Peachtree store of Thompson-Boland-Lee, a shoe store. With him on the picket line were State Sen. Leroy Johnson and City Alderman Q. V. Williamson.

"We believe that stores that sell to Negroes should use Negro personnel," Dr. King said. "We want some Negro salesmen up on the street floor here."

Oscar Thompson, vice president and manager of the shoe chain, said that his company had 25 Negro employes out of a total employe force of 125.

"My business is selling shoes," Thompson said. "I can't let a bunch of ministers tell me how to sell shoes. We have had Negro employes for years, but I'm not about to fire some white employe with 20 or more years experience just to hire a Negro salesman."

Thompson said that he was sure his percentage of Negro employes was higher than many other Atlanta stores.

King complained that Negro sales people at the shoe store were "down in the basement" and not on the main sales floor. Thompson said that all personnel in the sales force started "in the basement" and moved up as their experience warranted.

MLK: Where The Action Is?

WASHINGTON — The liberal Washington Post said Thursday that many who have listened to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. with respect in the past "will never again accord him the same confidence. He has diminished his usefulness to his cause, to his country and to his people. And that is a great tragedy." The Atlanta Negro leader deliberately dumped a hod of bricks on his own head when he narrowed his base in the civil rights movement to the confines of the Vietnam "peace movement."

But the civil rights movement as it was practiced non-violently under Dr. King was in trouble anyway. His demonstrations had won their big battles. The antipoverty program he advocated had been hiring the old militant leaders and moving them off the streets and into offices where they were invited to perform instead of protest.

A fringe of "black power" advocates stole the stage. For all their admirable goals of instilling pride of race in the Negro, their technique was a dangerous reverse demagoguery and a ready resort to violence.

The riots that ensued were disastrous for the civil rights movement. After each outburst of lawlessness and vandalism, white support dwindled, anti-Negro enmities hardened, and civil rights leaders struggled to minimize the damage with cooling-off periods that broke the momentum of the movement.

Then as the black power racists began expelling whites, who used to make up a big contingent of the nonviolent demonstrations, the war in Vietnam gave these white youngsters somewhere else to go.

The same university campuses that supplied manpower and money for the civil rights movement are preoccupied almost exclusively now with the peace-in-Vietnam protests. That's where the action is, all of a sudden, for the white kids who have been told by Stokely Carmichael that the Negro doesn't need them any more.

Dr. King must have watched this breaking up of a rational civil rights movement with deep dismay.

Without questioning his obviously deep-felt convictions about Vietnam, one can see that he is now in position to salvage at least some of the dissipated following of the civil rights movement, assuming a drastically narrow base is better than no base at all.

Yet there is disappointment among many who had hoped Dr. King would somehow overcome the obstacles and revitalize a responsible movement within the civil rights arena itself, and not follow the black power hotheads into the emotional tangle of foreign policy. This he failed to do. It is probably right to call it a tragedy. It now seems likely that the less spectacular but harder working old organizations like the NAACP and the Urban League will have to take up the burden of new responsibilities if the civil rights cause is to have continuity hereafter.

'ABC STAGE 67' TONIGHT

Negro Humor Is Shown In 'A Time for Laughter'

At the beginning of "A Time For Laughter," Harry Belafonte's production for "ABC STAGE 67" Thursday, on Channel 11, host Sidney Poitier says, "There are few things that express the mood of the Negro better than his humor. Unlike his music — jazz — which has been able to break out and move societies of the world, Negro humor has stayed home."

"A Time For Laughter" is an attempt to bring that humor into homes where it has never been seen or heard; to introduce audiences to such classic comedians as Moms Mabley and Pigmeat Markham, to the kind of comedy this show calls "Ghetto Talk," to the black birth of what became white minstrel shows ("That's how 'darkies' was born," Poitier comments ironically), to the outspoken wit and satire of the socio-political commentators of the generation following after Mabley and Markham.

Producer Belafonte is also performer Belafonte in "A Time For Laughter," displaying his respect for a vaudeville tradition that greatly ante-dates him in a time-honored sketch which teams him with Pigmeat Markham and guest star Diahann Carroll.

Godfrey Cambridge, actor-turned-comedian, also turns writer in the production. He is featured with Moms Mabley and Broadway star Diana Sands in a sketch he wrote, satirizing suburban social climbers of all colors.

George Kirby, whose skills at mimicry have made him a popular guest on television variety shows, plays a cast of seven in a ghetto barber shop, using the sharp edge of wit to outline seven very different types (in two colors).

The ghetto talk moves into two other areas. In a pool hall we find Redd Foxx, long-time favorite on the circuit of night clubs and theaters which play primarily to Negro audiences (and lately a guest on afternoon game shows) utilizing his zest for the language and rhythms of the "fast-talking hippie."

In a funeral parlor, young comedian Richard Pryor unsolemnly intones a satirical service that — like much of humor's spectrum — would be equally at home in any color scheme.

Mr. Ivan Allen
Mayor- City Of Atlanta
City Hall
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

I believe in our laws and obide by them, but for the life of me, I cant understand why the black race is not included in these laws. Were these laws made for the white race to obide by only? Evidently they were, because you and the Chief of police certainly offer nothing but excuses for not doing something to stop this destruction and danger to the citizens of Atlanta. Who is going to pay for this damage to properity? We all know, as well as you and the Chief who is responsible, but nothing is being done to make them pay for the damages caused by them. If we had the right people in charge, there would be enough fines and prison centances placed on the responsible ones, that soon they would run out of money to operate on.

We may have to wait until the next election to get something done about our laws, and a mayor and chief to inforce them, but it will be done.

There is such thing as impeachment, and a move will be started at an early date to see that this is done, unless you and the chief quit stalling and do something to stop this destruction. It's a very simple job to do. Just make all our laws apply to all races. Not just the white race.

I know that you would never have been elected mayor, if it had not been for the black race. But eaven they have turned against you now. You do not have now, or have ever had white friends. Yes you had few white trash friends. They are lower tan the negro trash. Just look at the mayor before you, who supportedyou. Next to you, he was the nearest nothing any city ever had.

You and the chief can do nothing to clear your name with the white man, but you might clear your consious, if you have one. I dont think you have or you would never have doublecrossed the race you were born in to then turned black. The black race cant trust you now. How can you expect it of them?

Yours truly,
Atlantian and White
American.

Dear Mayor Allen:

I dread every day to pick up an Atlanta paper on account of so many persons shot, racial troubles, etc.

Why is Stokely Carmichael who incites so many racial troubles, allowed to stay in Atlanta?

In the Constitution this morning one student was shot and left to die:

A man was arrested with a charge of slaying a college student in Griffin and leaving his body on a trash dump shot with a pistol:)

A Fairburn man was charged with the murder of his wife - shooting death.

They should have passed the Bill regarding firearms in the last legislature.

Please do something about Stokely Carmichael.

Very truly,
(Mrs.) J. Reynolds
