Cox Picked to Succeed Thomas In Butler Street YMCA Position

John Cox, executive director of the Atlanta Children and Youth Services Council, apparently is in line to become the next executive secretary of the Butler Street YMCA.

It was learned Friday that Cox has been offered the job after interviews with the Butler Street Y directors Thursday night. Cox said he hasn't made up his mind.

Cox would succeed Franklin Thomas, who has resigned to become director of personnel for the National Council of YMCAs in New York City, effective next month.

Cox has been director of the youth council for two years.

Thomas took the top job at Butler Street YMCA in 1965 to succeed Warren Cochrane, who left to head the Harlem YMCA.
