H. T. Jenkins, Chief
Atlanta Police Department
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Chief Jenkins:

The enclosed copy of my letter to Sergeant Eaves is self-explanatory, and I thought it should be invited to your attention.

This is my first experience of this nature and I truly think it is indeed worthy of comment. Some of this boy's family were in the station at the time, and left your city jail with a smile. Little things mean a lot, as you well know.

Sincerely yours,

Hampton L. Daughtry
