Dear Junior,

I did vote for Mr. Maddox. I was the majority of Pa. voters, I resent your name calling. I even hate to dignify such by this humble reply. Yet the madness you showed during the recent riot makes me feel that you are worth saving. You may be ignorant (ill informed), but not stupid. Certainly it would appear that your brain and tongue were not in gear when you chose to rant against an honest vote.

Yes, you may punt — you may go fishing if you desire. Better that you act like the man, the gentleman, I thought you were when you spoke to the Scout Council in Waycross some several years ago. If you can't, use this letter for a tip and accept my apologies for not sending you an oversized diaper.

Sincerely yours,
David P. Mason
