Dear Sir:

We are requesting the use of two (2) buses, to be provided by the Third Army, Fort McPherson, Atlanta, Georgia, to transport seventy-five (75) teen-agers to a baseball game to be held at the Atlanta Braves Stadium on Saturday, June 24, 1967.

The teen-agers live in the Boulevard section of Atlanta; an area which we feel tension is developing. They will have adequate supervision, seven (7) adults to be exact, that will accompany them.

Most of these teen-agers are members of, or frequent, the Atlanta Youth Development Center, a social agency in the community which will be responsible for this outing.

If this request is granted, we are asking that the buses meet the group Saturday, June 24th at 12:15 PM at 666 Parkway Drive, NE, Atlanta, Georgia.

Sincerely yours,

Eliza K. Paschall (Mrs)
Executive Director
