

Ivan Allen Criticized

Mr. Jamison Does Not Like Remarks About Lester Maddox

To The Chattanooga News-Free Press:

How shameful it is for a man of Ivan Allen's position to label the people of Georgia as ignorant, prejudiced and reactionary people! I wonder what he thought of the Atlanta citizens who elected him mayor? I wonder what he thinks of these free-thinking Americans who voted for Barry Goldwater for president?

Is it true that Ivan Allen has suddenly become God and can pass judgment on the people of Georgia for the choice they made in a free election?

Is Ivan Allen so little to condemn the people of his own state and yet so big that he can go on national television and apologize to the nation for the "mistake" that his people have made?

Is he a "Moses" called to lead the people of Georgia into the promised land? Or does he realize that many God-fearing Georgians believe that this is the promised land?

Is it possible that Ivan Allen will lash out at others with whom he disagrees and call them "totally unqualified" simply because they do not share his ideals?

Could his next target be Her-

the Horses H

s-Free Press Fo

man Talmadge and Dick Russell? Is it possible that this exalted spokesman shall attack other Democrat constituents and pave the way for other Republican successes?

Is Ivan Allen the epitome of progress in Georgia, or can the Atlanta people themselves share some of the credit for Atlanta's growth? Is it possible that Atlanta would grow in spite of him or does Atlanta move because of him?

Would this great political figure be so courageous as to attack the dastardly acts of some of Washington's evildoers? Or shall he confine himself to defamatory remarks about a local, sincere businessman who won a fair election on an honest basis?

I believe that God will hold Ivan Allen responsible for this vicious attack upon the life of Lester Maddox.

CHARLIE JAMISON.

Rhodesian Aid