1405 WEST WESLEY ROAD, N.W., ATLANTA, GEORGIA 30327

Sept. 8, 1966

Dear Mr. Mayor,

I would like to add my appreciation and praise of you to the many, many others who I am certain have been able to find more eloquent words with which to accomplish this. However, I can say with absolute certainty that no words of admiration of the manner in which you handled a most deplorable situation, as well as for your remarkable courage, are any more sincere than mine.

Atlanta is my adopted city since 1940, and though many times in the past years I have been extremely proud of my city and its elected officials, I must borrow a phrase and say "this was their finest hour."

Yours humbly and gratefully,
Adele K. Blumenthal
(Mrs. S. M. Blumenthal)
