

SNCC Aide Bound Over In Burglary

A man identified by police as a field coordinator for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee Friday was held under $5,000 bond for the Fulton County grand jury in connection with the burglary of a Peachtree Street clothing store.

Cleveland Lawrence Rickerson, 21, of a Racine Street SW address, already was on probation on a charge of fraudulent checks, according to detectives J. R. Wall and B. F. Addison. They added that probation officials placed a hold order against him.

Rickerson and Harvey Gene Gay, 21, and a third man not yet apprehended, were wanted in connection with a $3,000 burglary Oct. 13 of Spencer Ltd., 693 Peachtree St. NE, detectives said. They added Gay was arrested Friday night and will be arraigned in Municipal Court on Monday.

Gay was serving a probated entence for burglary, detectives related. They added he was convicted on two burglary counts in 1963 and was sentenced to five years, to serve two and the remainder probated.

Detectives said Rickerson told them he and another man from Los Angeles thought up the slogan "black power" that has come to be the watchword of SNCC. He also told authorities that he is a personal friend of Stokely Carmichael, former head of SNCC.

Records show Rickerson was arrested here Sept. 14, 1966, in the Boulevard (NE) riots.

In the burglary, detectives said a skylight atop the building was pried open and the merchandise brought back out through the skylight. Detectives said they had recovered four coats out of an assortment of expensive imported coats, sweaters and shirts reported taken from the firm.
