

CP

PERSONAL

180 Davis Street
Lexington, Tennessee 38351
July 10, 1967

The Hon. Ivan Allen, Jr.
Mayor of Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Sir:

Referring to your kind letter of June 21.

I am enclosing a copy of a letter I wrote to James W. Stephens on June 26, which to my amazement he has ignored. This cruel corrupt traitorous manager seems to think he is above the scope of responsibility, and can defy anyone and all justice. Why are he and his accomplice Willard M. Zurflieh protecting the swindler G. G. Humphries from justice.

He and his accomplice think it is their privilege to obey or not to obey the Fact Booklet entitled "Your Better Business Bureau; or to force or not to force dishonest businessmen to comply with justice; or to protect or not to protect buyers from dishonest businessmen. He should memorize Policy groups, One, Two, and Three. If you ran your organizations accordingly your policemen would have the privilege to enforce or not to enforce laws, which absolutely ^{is} not the law of our democracy.

All Better Business Bureaus are incorporated or licensed by law for their managers to impartially protect honest buyers from dishonest businessmen, obey the Fact Booklet entitled "Your Better Business Bureau, force dishonest businessmen to comply with justice, to work in close co-operation with municipal, state, and federal bodies, and certainly not to protect swindlers as dishonest businessmen from justice.

Why is it not possible to institute some kind of legal proceedings which will permanently remove James W. Stephens as manager of the Better Business Bureau of Atlanta, Georgia. I have suffered very much and have been victimized for months and months at the hands of these three criminals. My status is becoming unberable.

I would like to hear from you and have your advice by return mail.

Yours sincerely,

J. M. Hanken
J. M. Hanken

no reply