

Dear Mayor Allen:

It is with regret that I call attention to the scriptural injunctions against racial integration, in view of the sincere attitudes which prompt contrary positions. However, I believe the salvation of the race and the purpose of its creation and destiny takes precedence over predilections which may have been induced by mistaken assumptions, even by some of the clergy.

Some scriptural passages which are pertinent include Gen. 9:25-27; Ex. 34:10-16; Deut. 7:1-7; Ezra 9; Neh. 9:2, 13:3, 13:30; Ps. 2:8; I Kings 8:53; II Tim. 3:5-9, 4:3,4.

Sincerely,
H. E. Martz,

San Jose 26, Calif.
