

JORDAN
Enterprises

weekly newspapers, atlanta 10, georgia

DUPREE JORDAN, JR.
PRESIDENT AND CHAIRMAN
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
T. CHARLES ALLEN
DUPREE JORDAN, SR.
MARGARET M. JORDAN
ROSLYN M. JORDAN

NORTH DEKALB RECORD

AAAA PRESS, INC.
5396 PEACHTREE ROAD
CHAMBLEE, GEORGIA
P. O. BOX 388 - GL. 7-6391

DUPREE JORDAN, PUBLISHER
MARTHA F. BROWN, EDITOR
L. R. DALE, ADVERTISING
P. K. JOHNSON, CIRCULATION

THE WEEKLY STAR

WEST END PUBLISHING CO., INC.
935 GORDON STREET, S. W.
ATLANTA 10, GEORGIA
P. O. BOX 10888 - PL. 5-6676

DUPREE JORDAN, PUBLISHER
MARGRET B. ROSS, EDITOR

copy of telegram sent on January 10, 1963

Editor, Newsweek Magazine
Newsweek Building
444 Madison Avenue
New York 22, New York

Despite your excellent Atlanta staff, your report on Peyton-Harlan barricades reflects unfairly. January 11 editorial from THE WEEKLY STAR, our newspaper covering Southwest Atlanta, gives better perspective of problem, at least to most of those who know the situation best. Would be grateful if you could summarize our thinking.

DuPree Jordan, Jr., publisher

JORDAN Enterprises Weekly Newspapers

copy of editorial, sent you previously by Joe Cumming, is also enclosed herewith

