Mr. Jack Delius, Director
City Parks Department
City Hall
Atlanta, Georgia 30303

Dear Mr. Delius:

The County is planning to expand the Adamsville Health Center in order to meet the urgent needs of this growing community, but the presence of the City Recreation Center attached to the existing health center building makes it somewhat difficult to plan an adequate and efficient addition. The County is also concerned about the effect this recreation center will have on parking facilities and future expansions which will undoubtedly be necessary.

On the other hand, I gather from conversations with you and your staff that you find the recreation building and the situation in which you have to use it far from ideal, and that the City too realizes the pressing need for better recreational facilities for this area.

In view of our mutual dissatisfaction with the present arrangements and our need to plan better for the future, the County would be interested in considering a proposal from you under which the City would give up the recreation center in return for some other property or consideration which you might find more useful. We have in mind that while you might not be able to relinquish use of this building immediately, we could work out some arrangement whereby the County could secure clear title for the recreation building now in order to facilitate the approval of a Federal grant for expanding the health center.

I regret that we cannot be more specific, but we obviously do not know your needs, and I am sure you and your staff could come up with a much better proposed exchange than we could.

The pleasant relationships and close cooperation we have enjoyed with your Department in the past leads me to believe that we can work out some agreement which will be advantageous to both the City and County.

Yours very truly,

John W. Lemon
