

This new design was presented by Edward Hancock in September, 1861. Its field was red, its bars blue, forming the St. Andrews Cross, and the stars white. This time there were 13 stars. This became the BATTLE FLAG of the CONFEDERACY.

P33019

POST CARD

Pub. by Atlanta News Agency, Inc., Chamblee, Ga.

I lost your don't hear gripping from me. Not much you don't.
Peter Zach Geier

Postcard
by COLONIAL PICTURE PUBLISHERS, INC., Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

Mayor Allen
City Hall
Atlanta Ga.

