

REPORT ON LOCAL COALITIONS

Indicated below are the cities from which The Urban Coalition has received either from the mayor or other community leadership expressions of interest in forming local counterpart coalitions. We are now in the process of exploring the reality of that interest in these cities and the possibility of Coalition assistance in response to requests for organizing and programming help.

Phoenix, Arizona	Saginaw, Michigan
Little Rock, Arkansas	St. Paul, Minnesota
Compton, California	Kansas City, Missouri
Oakland, California	St. Louis, Missouri
Pasadena, California	University City, Missouri
Richmond, California	Omaha, Nebraska
Riverside, California	Las Vegas, Nevada
San Bernadino, California	Atlantic City, New Jersey
San Diego, California	Paterson, New Jersey
San Francisco, California	Buffalo, New York
Denver, Colorado	Syracuse, New York
Hartford, Connecticut	Charlotte, North Carolina
New Haven, Connecticut	Fargo, North Dakota
Wilmington, Delaware	Akron, Ohio
Savannah, Georgia	Cincinnati, Ohio
Honolulu, Hawaii	Columbus, Ohio
Chicago, Illinois	Portland, Oregon
Des Moines, Iowa	Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
Kansas City, Kansas	Providence, Rhode Island
Topeka, Kansas	Chattanooga, Tenn.
Lexington, Kentucky	Nashville, Tenn.
Louisville, Kentucky	Seattle, Washngton
Baltimore, Maryland	Tacoma, Washington
Boston, Massachusetts	Beloit, Wisconsin
Jackson, Michigan	Madison, Wisconsin

This list does not include cities where we are informed local counterpart organizations are either already formed or nearing formation. Those cities are as follows:

Atlanta, Georgia

Minneapolis, Minnesota

Detroit, Michigan

New York, New York

A full report on these efforts will be made at the Steering Committee meeting on October 9th.