

Civil Rights

People in Atlanta was forced to integrate with policemen making them do so is the way that atlanta is being desingrated and not because the altnata people want integration, so it does not appear any public servant from atlanta can tell the world or the congress how we have peacefully integrated truthfully.