Dear Ivan:

I have been out of the city and returned last night, but I couldn't let any more time pass before I put pen to paper to congratulate you on the splendid job you did last Tuesday night as well as on Saturday night.

All citizens of the city should be grateful to you for your services "above and beyond the contract."

My best to Louise and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely yours,
