Mr. Paul Muldawer, Architect
900 Peachtree Street, N. E.
Atlanta, Georgia

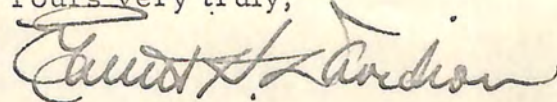

Mr. Muldawer, I had intended writing you before now but, having been out of the city quite a bit recently, my correspondence has suffered.

Reese Cleghorn's editorial, "Will Ghost Streets of Atlanta Live Again?" was more than casually interesting to me. The fact is, I've walked and driven the alleys of our underground city many times and have always wondered why their potential has not yet been exploited.

When convenient with you, I would be extremely interested in delving into this as a possible investment opportunity - either individually or as part of a group. With this in mind, I am wondering if you would be kind enough to give me a call (482-8811). In the event I am out, please ask for my secretary, Mrs. Betty Nuckolls, who can generally reach me within a few hours.

Many thanks in advance for your cooperation, and looking forward to hearing from you, I am

Yours very truly,

Everett H. Davidson
