

Washington, D. C.
Sept. 9, 1966

Dear sir

I noticed in the paper that Stokely Carmichael was stirring up trouble in Atlanta.

A few days ago he, with others were on a television program. A reporter asked Carmichael if he had ever voted - He said, "No". He then asked him if he was a citizen of the U.S. - He drooped his head and said that was questionable. If he is not a citizen maybe he can be sent out of the country. Who finances him?

This country need to look into these questionable people.

L. Burges