Mayor Ivan Allen, Jr.,
3700 Northside Drive, N.W.,
Atlanta, Georgia.

Dear Mayor Allen:

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ."

First, we thank our heavenly Father for protecting your life during the recent riots in Atlanta.
A friend phoned me and said, "We ought to pray for Mayor Allen." "I have been praying for him" I replied, "but will pray further." Also in our Tuesday prayer meeting in Faith Memorial Church prayer was requested for you. We thank God for His protecting care over you and for the wisdom He gave you during that crisis.

More recently I heard you on Television express yourself in a manner that grieved our hearts after the election. In Proverbs 16:32 we read, "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city." Again in Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."
In Proverbs 10:19, "In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise." Let us pray for FAITH in GOD to work out HIS plan. "Faith is the victory that overcomes the world." "Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness spring
-ing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled."
Hebrews 12:15.

God bless you, Mayor Allen, and help you in your difficult position. His Word says, "MY Grace is sufficient for you." Jesus Loves you!

Sincerely, in HIM,
Blanche Applebey

CAN PRAYER
SAVE AMERICA?

✧ In the days of the Civil War, a personal friend of Abraham Lincoln was a visitor at the White House. "I had been spending three weeks with Mr. Lincoln as his guest. One night—it was just after the Battle of Bull Run—I was restless and could not sleep . . . from the private room where the president slept, I heard low tones, for the door was partly open. Instinctively I wandered in, and there I saw a sight which I have never forgotten. It was the president, kneeling before an open Bible . . . his back was toward me. I shall never forget his prayer: 'Oh, thou God, that heard Solomon in the night when he prayed and cried for wisdom, hear me. I cannot lead these people, I cannot guide the affairs of this nation without Thy help. . . . O God, hear me and save this nation.'"

George Washington, our first president, who prayed in the snow at Valley Forge said, "The event is in the hands of God." When the tide of battle was unfavorable, Washington said, "How will it end? God will direct."

When the leaders of our country assembled to write the constitution, it was proposed by Benjamin Franklin that each session be opened with prayer. Franklin said, "I have lived a long time, and the longer I live the more convincing proof I see of this truth—that God governs the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without His aid?"

Our nation today is great because it was founded by men who feared God and men who believed in prayer. But in our generation, prayer has been replaced by political intrigue, materialism and a mistaken notion that our private and national affairs can be run without God.

Today our American way of life is threatened from within and from all sides. The dangers facing our country and the entire world are so great that they cannot be taken lightly.

Here and there throughout America, voices are heard as individuals and groups begin to call on God in prayer. Young evangelist Billy Graham's voice is heard as he calls the nation and individuals to repentance, to faith in Christ and to prayer.

But this whole nation must be moved to prayer. So great are the dangers, so grave the perils, so tremendous the political problems, so important the election issues, that it is imperative that we lay hold upon the Lord God in prayer for His will.

Yes, prayer can save America! But we cannot really lay hold upon a holy God until we have come to know Him as our Father. So that we might know Him, the loving Father sent His Son to be the Saviour: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. . . . As many as received him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" (John 3:16; 1:12).

Yes, prayer can save America. There is only one way out, and that is up! If we do not turn to God, we will be enveloped by godless Communism. It is either revival or ruin! It is now or never! The answer will not be found in the U.N. or NATO. The answer will be found only when we are spiritually awakened and call upon the Lord our God. Spiritual values must be restored. We must return to the faith of our fathers, to the God of our mothers—and to the family altar with its prayer.

Let's each one lay hold of this tremendous promise given by God: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land (II Chronicles 7:14).

I ACCUSE
MY PARENTS!

I accuse my parents . . .

▶ Millions of lost souls will stand in the judgment day before the Great White Throne and, hearing their condemnation, will hysterically scream, "I accuse my parents."

There are thousands of parents who have given their children everything but God. They have provided them with nourishing food, warm clothing and liberal educations . . . but no Saviour. They have showered them with gifts and protected them from harm . . . but have not provided a family altar.

They have read to them Dick Tracy and Superman, but not the Bible. They have taken them to the movies, but not to Sunday school. They have cursed before their children, but never prayed. Thus thousands of children have lived to curse their parents for bringing them into the world and raising them without Christ.

One of America's great moral problems today is juvenile delinquency. The majority of criminal offenses are being committed by teen-agers. They have no reverence for God and thus no respect for authority. Public schools have instilled their anti-Bible philosophy of "behaviorism" in their heads and they are expressing themselves to the utter consternation of educators, statesmen, clergymen and police.

Juvenile delinquency is but the out-growth of adult delinquency. The son will be no better than his father, the daughter no better than her mother. A God-less, Bible-less, drunken father will produce an equally worthless son. A smoking, beer-drinking, gadabout mother will produce a loose-living and pleasure-loving daughter.

God Almighty will hold you parents accountable for sending your children to hell. Judge Healy of the Juvenile Court of Detroit, addressing a Young People's Rally on July 7, 1945, said, "Eighty percent of the youngsters arraigned in my court came from homes in which there has been no religious training." Bible-less homes produce potential criminals.

The breakdown of morals among our youth is the direct result of throwing the Bible out of the homes, schools, and churches of America. Boys and girls who are already reaping the disastrous results of their sinful orgies, are already crying, "I accuse my parents; they never told me about God, Christ, the Bible, sin or sex."

To be responsible for the demoralization of a youngster is a crime of colossal proportions. If your child goes to hell, it will be, to a great extent, your fault. If you are on your way to the lake of fire, your child is following in your footsteps.

Friend, you can lead your children to heaven or to hell. The sole solution is for you to accept the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. "This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners" (I Timothy 1:15). Believe God's Word and receive His Son now—and you will be saved.

Then you must begin living for your Lord in your home by immediately establishing a time each day when you gather your family together for prayer and the reading of the Bible. Then, by God's help, endeavor to lead your children to the Saviour, who in turn will keep them from the pollutions of this world. "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

HOW DO
YOU KNOW
YOU ARE

HOW DO YOU KNOW YOU ARE RIGHT?

■ A sailor speaking to a passenger on one of the Great Lakes steamer a few years ago said, "There are about 1500 religions in the world; how do you know you're right?"

"How does your Captain know he's right when he wants to steer a straight course for port, but owing to a heavy fog he can't see the harbor lights?" I asked in reply.

"Why, he goes by the chart and compass."

"Just so, and on this one vital point as to how a man can be just before God, and know that he is sure of eternal salvation, we may know that we are absolutely right. God has not left us to find our own course across the sea of time without a chart to guide us. The Word of God is a lamp to our feet and a light for our path. Without it we would grope in darkness, like a ship that has lost its rudder on a starless night. It is both a revelation from God and a revelation of God, showing us our true condition as sinners before Him, and His great love in sending 'His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life' (John 3:16)."

There are many shades of "religious beliefs" in this poor storm-tossed sea, but we must set them all aside as worthless and as the ways of men, which Scripture says are the ways of death (Proverbs 16:25). The Lord Jesus Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Him (John 14:6). His death upon the cross has opened the way for *sinner*s to come to God, and this is the only way; there is no other.

We may differ on other points of greater or less importance, but we must agree on this main issue, that "the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin" (I John 1:7), if we expect to anchor in the haven of eternal peace.

Faith believes what God says, and what God requires, and receives the blessing. The captain of a steamer once told me that he did not know why he pulled his ship from what seemed to be the right course, when a heavy fog prevented his sighting an island in Lake Superior; but that action saved his vessel from being wrecked, and I suggested that God is the Preserver of all men, specially of those that believe (I Timothy 4:10). But he thought he was on the right course, and had he remained there, seeking to "reason it out" with himself and his mates, it would have resulted in the loss of the ship and probably of all its precious crew.

It is not a question of "opinion," dear reader, but what saith the Scriptures? That Chart is accurate; it has never led any astray; never caused any to make shipwreck of their lives, but has brought life, peace, joy and happiness to countless thousands. Look it over, read it, believe it, and you'll not be troubled with the question, "Who is right?"

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:36).

Mr. Jamison Does Not Like
Remarks About Lester Maddox

To The Chattanooga News-Free Press:

How shameful it is for a man of Ivan Allen's position to label the people of Georgia as ignorant, prejudiced and reactionary people! I wonder what he thought of the Atlanta citizens who elected him mayor? I wonder what he thinks of these free-thinking Americans who voted for Barry Goldwater for president?

Is it true that Ivan Allen has suddenly become God and can pass judgment on the people of Georgia for the choice they made in a free election?

Is Ivan Allen so little to condemn the people of his own state and yet so big that he can go on national television and apologize to the nation for the "mistake" that his people have made?

Is he a "Moses" called to lead the people of Georgia into the promised land? Or does he realize that many God-fearing Georgians believe that this is the promised land?

Is it possible that Ivan Allen will lash out at others with whom he disagrees and call them "totally unqualified" simply because they do not share his ideals?

Could his next target be Herman Talmadge and Dick Russell? Is it possible that this exalted spokesman shall attack other Democrat constituents and pave the way for other Republican successes?

Is Ivan Allen the epitome of progress in Georgia, or can the Atlanta people themselves share some of the credit for Atlanta's growth? Is it possible that Atlanta would grow in spite of him or does Atlanta move because of him?

Would this great political figure be so courageous as to attack the dastardly acts of some of Washington's evildoers? Or shall he confine himself to defamatory remarks about a local, sincere businessman who won a fair election on an honest basis?

I believe that God will hold Ivan Allen responsible for this vicious attack upon the life of Lester Maddox.

Open Letter To Mayor Allen

Dear Sir:

We were never as shocked in our lives as we were when we read the cruel, childish, bigot remarks of the Mayor of the "great" City of Atlanta in your statement about the election of Lester Maddox as Democratic Nominee for Governor.

You know by now that you are among the minority who think the nomination of Lester Maddox for Governor is "deplorable," and as for the "seal of the great State of Georgia" being tarnished, such was the case when you were elected Mayor of Atlanta. On that date, the "seal of the City of Atlanta was tarnished" upon your becoming Mayor by the "colored" votes that elected you. The White People of the State of Georgia have spoken and you refuse to listen. Your opinion is only one against millions. You are denying all Georgians the choice of electing who they want to head the State. That, in our opinion, is dictatorship. If you and Martin Luther King are ashamed to be called Georgians, all we can say to you is this, "There is no fence around the State of Georgia and you are free to leave whenever you want to," and we are sure no one would be seen crying when you go, except your Negro supporters. Maybe you can take them with you?

We do not appreciate being called ignorant! We make up our own minds, as do the majority of the people, for whom we wish to vote. You have the same right, but just because your "Golden Boy" didn't win, you act like a SELFISH

CHILD. We lost our votes when we voted for Mayor, too, but we didn't act like SELFISH CHILDREN about it, like you are doing now. Mr. Allen, if you plan to "go fishing" on November 8th and Lester Maddox wins, which he has a very good chance of doing, you should keep your mouth shut and leave the choice up to the voters. This is what you should have done this time! We all know there is nothing worse than a politician who is lost, except a politician who sells his soul for a vote. We realize you are in a vulnerable position and that if you do not scream loud enough for the colored voters to support you in a bloc type vote, then you know you are lost as a politician.

YES, MR. ALLEN, we read your statement to the press, and you have had your "say." Now, we, as an independent group of people, not "backed" by any organization, feel we have the right to our opinions and to our choice as to who we want for Governor, AND WE ARE GOING TO HAVE IT IN NOVEMBER!!!

A FEW WORDS ON WELTNER

To the Editor of The Herald:

This Weltner boy, a Representative in the House of Representatives from the 3rd District of Georgia, and nominee of the Democratic primary to succeed himself, has announced that he will not serve further as the Representative from the 3rd District of Georgia.

This action of Weltner's is indeed a step in the right direction. It would be just fine if every office holder in the United States who holds to the philosophy such as Weltner's would follow suit.

It is quite easy to understand the reason back of Weltner's action. I refer to the true reason; not the reason he made public. Had he seen fit to adhere to the truth, he would have said that he is taking this action because he has been a miserable failure; that he is seeing, day by day, a disintegration of all that he has worked so hard for.

Weltner forfeited the respect and confidence of all white people and a majority of Negro people in the section of the country he calls home, because of his activity in favor of Civil Rights legislation. Now he finds himself a man without a country; a man without a friend. Quite naturally this state of affairs has caused him to become despondent, which he now evidences by his action in refusing to try to go on as Representative from the 3rd District of Georgia.

I believe that the reason Weltner gives for his action is the flimsiest I ever heard, and it has no semblance of truth in it. He says that he has to take this action because of the loyalty oath which the Democrats require every candidate to take, and which Weltner took. Weltner seems to want people to think that by the action which he is taking, he is no longer bound by the oath he took. He swore that he would support every nominee of the Democratic party, and he affixed his signature thereto. Any subsequent action by him cannot in any way affect an oath which he had previously taken.

If Weltner is looking for a job, I suggest that he apply at a broadcasting company for a job as news commentator. They might appreciate his talents there.

Dear Mr Allen,

I am one of those ignorant Georgians you spoke of last Thursday. I just wanted to let you know that I have as much sense as you have about who I want to be our next Gouvernar, I surely don't need a mealy mouth politician to tell me how to vote, an as for Madax being qualified for the job. I feel sure he could do a much better job of being Gouvernar than you are doing of being Mayor of Atlanta. But you have to please the negro as that is where you get all your vote, If you ever ran for any office out side Atlanta you wouldn't get any where.

For white voters wouldn't want you in any office of any kind.

But keep your insulting remarks
and that will help Madax more than anything else could, as the people of Georgia are getting tired of two bit politicians calling us names and trying to tell us how to vote. We all have a mind of our own and intend to use it the way we see the best for us
the people of Georgia & the best way for you politicians, and I feel sure Madax will be our next Governor if we can keep the crooks out of the ballot boxes now.

and as for this (Write in Votes), we the people of Ga.
hope you do that too, as that

Will be assurance-ness of Maday being our next Governor. So you good people just keep up the good work for Maday

Sincerely

Upset in Georgia

Although Ellis Arnall was the odds-on favorite to win Georgia's gubernatorial runoff primary, there were a few people—not many—who thought that Lester G. Maddox might just possibly squeeze out a victory. No one dreamed, however, that he would win by some 70,000 votes. And there are plenty of people who are now asking: What does this mean?

It would be easy to conclude that Maddox, a segregationist who closed his Atlanta restaurant rather than serve Negroes, is a beneficiary of the racial issue. And to some extent he doubtless is, especially against the background of the recent senseless race flareup in Atlanta. But this is not the whole story—not any more so than racial disorders are the sole explanation of this week's Senate show of displeasure with the way hospital and school desegregation guidelines have been handled. Majority Leader Mike Mansfield probably spoke for most of the Senate members when he said that the disaffection was not concerned with desegregation as such, but resulted from a general feeling that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare had been moving "too fast."

There is no way of knowing to what extent racial resentment figured in the decision of Georgia Democrats to cast their ballots for Maddox. But it is a matter of record that Maddox said little about the race issue during his campaign. His big rhetorical guns were reserved for the federal government, President Johnson, the Great Society, liberalism, socialism and communism. Arnall, on the other hand, was tagged with being a "Washington man." And during the campaign he could not get out from under a statement, widely attributed to him, that "I am a national Democrat and anyone who doesn't like it can go to hell."

So, hopefully at least, it looks now as though Georgia will not be ripped up one side and down the other by a governorship campaign keyed to race in the weeks which remain before the November election.

The Republican candidate is Representative Howard Callaway, who was a Democrat until 1964, when he swung over and helped carry Georgia for Senator Goldwater. Callaway is not a racist, and he can be expected to make his bid for the governorship primarily as an anti-administration man.

When the runoff voting patterns have been checked out, Maddox may conclude, of course, that racial feeling was the sleeper in his big win. But then, again, he may not. He may decide to stick to the formula which carried him so successfully through the primary.

If this proves to be the case, LBJ and all his works will be in for a fearful pounding on the Georgia hustings during the next few weeks. But that is greatly to be preferred to a campaign that could undo the notable progress which Georgia has made in recent years in building a better racial climate.

Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

once upon a time in American History, the English laid down laws to the Americans that they didn't like, so they revolted against the laws of the land, and as a starter we had "the Boston Tea Party". Americans fighting for their freedom, Americans fighting against laws they didn't agree with, but no one down through History ever accused these stalwart men of being men of hate.

In our present time, one American tried to fight for what he believed right, and the newspapers, television stations, radio stations, the negroes, Lyndon Johnson, Hubert Humphrey, Katzenbach, Warren, and a few more started calling this man, Lester Maddox, a man of hate, a leader of violence, while 90% of the Americans admired him for his courage to fight for what he thought was right. God alone knows how we americans wish there were more men like him in our great nation. a man that is honest, a man that is a christian, a man that teaches Sunday school, and is not ashamed to get on his knees and pray to his God. He was a man, that after the Federal government closed his business, continued to pay his negro employees their regular salary as long as his money held out. These negroes admired him and still love this man with a heart.

yet his enemies who could find no scandal against him, could only yell "axe handles and violence". They had nothing else they could accuse him of, and still cant find anything against him. These people, including your writers, and your newspapers, and Iwan allen and Charles wellton will pay dearly for your accusations against Lester maddox. The people of Georgia rule this state, not your newspapers, not Iwan allen, not martin Luther King. Every article that is written against Zester Maddox, will bring him more and more votes. My wife and I were both going to vote for B. Calloway, but you have switched us over to Zester Maddox, and we hear this statement every where we turn.

Everyone in the state is laughing about Charles Weltner's statement that his principals caused him to withdraw from the race for Congressman from this district, for everyone knows that Mr. Weltner has never had any principals as far as the white people of Georgia are concerned. Ivan Allen, Jr. and Charles Hartsfield, along with the writers of our newspapers have never had any principals where the white people are concerned.

Mr. Weltner, Mr. Ivan, and Mr. Hartsfield have always been elected by the negroes and they are all under orders to the negroes.

"He who is among you without sin, let him cast the first stone."

Mr. Allen,

A letter to let you know how I stand on the governers race and also the problems of the nation. First of all, I'm 100% behind Lester Maddox.

You don't know me, and I'm glad you don't. Every American still has the right to freedom of speech. Even though it's none of my business what you do in Atlanta, I just want you to know, how I, and many thousands of Georgians feel toward you. You have taken your stand against Ga. you have said that Lester Maddox was elected by the ignorant people of Georgia.

I want you to understand one thing. I fought in the Korean war for Freedom. I voted for Lester Maddox
and I'm going to do the same on Nov. 8.

It's your Freedom, to vote protect the Niggers. It's my Freedom to vote for Lester Maddox. I want to make one thing clear to
you. No wonder the people in the north thinks
the people in the south are stupid. It's because of people like you! Mayor of Atlanta, the largest City, saying that the Rioting that took place in Atlanta was caused by hot weather, and if it had rained it would not have happened.

How Ignorant and Stupid <sup>can you</sup> get. You are poor excuse for a white man. I hope I never get the chance to meet you. The best thing for you to do is to keep your mouth shut about Lester Maddox. They stand for God, Liberty + America. You know nothing but Tiggus, Johnson, Martin Luther King, + The Great Society. You ain't a white man in my book. I ask you to be careful how you speak about the ignorant people of Ga. I'm from Georgia" and proud of it" I'm not ignorant I'm a free voter + I'm FOR

I feel sorry though that Georgia has a mayor as ignorant and stupid as
the Mayor of Atlanta, Georgia.

Mayer Allen; why dont you announce on a write-in vote the candidacy for Weltners place in Congress, even tho Weltner felt that he would lose and to save face withdrew, - however I dont think he would have lost since his discript is principally the black power area of Atlanta, - and since Ellis polled 92% of this vote, I for one feel that you would easily poll 100%, Plus. surely you should, - thus you would get it in a walk, and many people would vote for you that would not other wise- I feel, to get you out of the Mayers office now this would be your wonderfull chance to go to Washington and you could then further your movements against all the people, not just the Atlanta folks who are a small majority of the entire colored dominated Nation now. Why Weltner withdrew will be quite a jolt to his followers, he now cant persue the Kiah he seemd so afraid of, nor can he push the DIS arming of white people. The riots also helped show people what they NEED here

Sep 30th 1966

My Man Allen,-

I perceive that you are still in the bonds of iniquity, as evidenced by the words that proceeded out of your mouth as you stood before the public.

These things that come out of the mouth, proceed from the heart and they defile the man (read Matthew 15:18-19 - Mark 7:21.) from within out of the heart evil (1st Sam. 24:13) Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked and God is angry with the wicked (Psalm 7:11) The heart is desperately wicked Jeremiah 17:9

As you stood before the public and opened your mouth against Mr. Maddox, you showed to the world that you were not a man possessed with the spirit of God and righteousness, a fit man to be a leader of men, your words showed envy, jealousy, hatred, malice, spite, evil intentions, bearing ill will to slander and hurt another.

In proverbs, God says, he that ~~he that~~ hideth hatred with lying-lips and he that uttereth a slander is a fool. In Psalms 7:14-15-16
 we read - "He made a pit and digged it, and is fallen into it." In trying to destroy an other, he destroyed himself. Behold he travaileth with iniquity and hath conceived mischief and brought forth fals-hood - His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his silent dealing shall come down upon him.

No high point in life, secular or spiritual is ever achieved apart from self denial and sacrifice.

Mr Madox in his willingness to sacrifice for the principle of right, was achieved by God's help and the prayers of God fearing men and women, a position far greater than the one he sought
 when he ran against you.

Rom 8:28 worked in his behalf. God had a higher place for him, he was to be elevated to first place and be leader and chief in authority in our great state of Georgia where God fearing people still believe in the things that our forefathers fought and died for.

If you are not happy with the choice we the people made, you have our permission to move to any other place you may desire.

Sincerely and prayerfully

If you don't believe it ask the Public.

I am enclosing clipping news article about Officer Bedgood - How a tragic situation like this is brought about is deplorable -

a disservice was done to Hank Aaron when he allowed charges to be dropped against his wife without going to trial - Hank Aaron's Popularity was damaged with reports Jane Alton <sup>damaged</sup> U.S.
your Popularity was also badly, also Herbert Jerome - who never has been a Popular Chief - Had when a Chief went

~~has~~ back up his Men - No blunder officers are reluctant to make cases

case was very unpopular with the negro population. Many say you have to be a celebrity to get prejudicial treatment in atlanta - (The negroes say when Martin Luther tells you and Herbert to jump you ask how far -)

Some <sup>times</sup> your choice ~~was~~ of words show a lack of thought - you would make more friends by just listening - a man is smarter than you think so - (your

you muffed again when you refused

Officer in Aaron Case Resigns

Patrolman L. W. Bedgood, one of three officers suspended following an incident at Atlanta Stadium involving the wife of Braves' star Henry Aaron, has resigned from the Atlanta Police Department.

Bedgood's resignation was effective Sept. 20, according to the police department daily bulletin.

Bedgood said he gave Mrs. Barbara Aaron copies of charges for failure to obey an officer's signal and cursing while working traffic at the stadium. Mrs. Aaron, through her attorney, accused Bedgood of having drawn his service revolver.

Bedgood and Lieutenants C. J. Strickland and Ben F. Rains were suspended while an investigation was conducted in the incident.

Dear Mr. Allen,

After hearing and reading your calm, temperate and well thought out statement that 'It is deplorable that the combined forces of ignorance, prejudice, reactionism and the duplicity of many Republican voters have thrust upon the State of Georgia, Lester Maddox, etc.' I have been wondering under which of these categories I fell. I may be some prejudiced, and not a Republican, so I prefer to believe my trouble is ignorance.

I have been buying stationery, office supplies, etc. from your company for over thirty years, and incidentally the paper I am writing on and the envelope it is enclosed in came from your plant. So I have to plead ignorance or just crazy as hell to have been buying from a company that has at the head of it someone who is so spoiled that he cannot bear the fact that someone who does not think like he thinks could be lectured by the people of Georgia and that he would make such irrational public statement. If I remember correctly you had the bug to be governor a few years ago and went out over the state and it did not take take you long to find out that the people out in the state didnt cotton to you at all.

All that happened in the primary this week was an expression by the voters of Georgia as to who they wanted to run as their candidate in the general election. They have spoken. How can you, a moderate, whatever that is, be so immoderate as to object to following the voters decision?

By the way, it must be great to live in Atlanta with all its traffic problems, riots, firemen and carpenter strikes, a last place football team and a baseball team in the second division most of the season. Try to get a few of the above straightened out before deploring the fact that the people of Georgia vote for and elect whom they want.
