Mayor Allen:

You have been playing "footsies" with the Negroes possibly in an effort to gain nationwide acclaim as their champion in one of the South's largest cities. In fact, it appears that you were on the verge of becoming a renegade to the white race.

It is quite evident that you have little or no knowledge of the Negroes' basic character which has traits reaching back to the jungle tribal code. They are prepared, at a moment's whim, to butcher every white man, woman, and child.

You made of yourself a most ridiculous figure running about in the crowd shouting for the darkies to "go home" while a pack of them were following on your heels advising them to stay put and shout "police brutality".

It is too bad that the Negroes, after toppling you off the top of the car, didn't initiate you into some of the tribal rites their ancestors inflict upon helpless captives. I think that a good many of the white people to whom you have rendered so many disservices would heartily approve of you being a sacrificial victim of your beloved blacks. Perhaps you should surrender yourself to "Black Power" and let them make of you a martyr. Think of the massive publicity you would receive --- your name would go down in history!
