NEIGHBORHOOD YOUTH CORPS PROGRAMS

(IN-SCHOOL, OUT-OF-SCHOOL, and SUMMER)

The Neighborhood Youth Corps programs offer work to dropouts and students of poor families, in the range of $1.25 to $1.60 per hour.

1) Is NYC needed in your community?

Very Much X
Somewhat
Not at all
Unknown
Additional Comments:
Provides direct work experient unemployment rate in our communemployment.	nce for the group which has the highest whity.
Have the services performed by community?	NYC enrollees been of value to the
Very much_ X
Somewhat
Not at all
Unknown
Additional comments:  Host agencies complain bitter We have more requests for NYC	ly if their allocation of NYC enrollees is cut. workers than we can fill.
	e enrollees and place them into regular
Strong effort X
Moderate
No out-of-school program
No effort
Unknown
but some yoursters are so badl;	ples of movement from NYC to permanent employment, y crippled educationally and socially, they need ining effort than NYC is currently able to give.
	ADDRESS Director of Governmental Liaison

NYC AFFILIATION? Mayor's liaison representative to CAP agency

Office of the Mayor, Atlanta, Georgia

NYC (out of school) allocation has been gradually reduced over the past two years. We feel this program has great practical value and tremendous implications for future development of youth, and rather than being reduced, it should be expanded and strengthened.