

January 3, 1967

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Steering Committee

FROM: The Task Force on Educational Disparities

The Task Force on Educational Disparities expects to identify special activities at its next meeting on January 8th which will relate its program activities to the local coalition level.

The Task Force is preparing a summary review of current efforts to eliminate educational disparities now underway across the country. After a review of this material, it is considering a two-day session of intensive discussion with individuals involved in these current efforts.

From this meeting the Task Force expects to develop a plan of action on how urban coalitions can move to eliminate educational disparities.