Dear Mr. Ellen,

How can you promote brotherly love when you showed so much hatred for Mr. Maddox on television tonight? Now you have lost all influence with your brother the Negro. You never had influence on the white people except to plant a desire in them for leadership from a man like Mr. Maddox. You are jealous because you do not have the back bone to stand for what is right.

The Negro on the street interviewed on Channel 5 has more ethics than you do. Think about it.

I am thankful my residence in Atlanta is in the past.

With sympathy
